Many Districts In State To Vote On Liquor Sales

Local Option Elections In 225 Communities Feature
Primaries Tuesday

WILL NOMINATE MAYORS IN 28 CITIES

HARRISBURG, Sept. 6.—(INS)—Primary balloting Tuesday will be highlighted in 225 communities by local option elections.

The wet-dry issue will be settled at the same time voters rubber-stamp Republican and Democratic party choices for the state superior court, the only statewide contest which will mark the general election November 4.

Because of lack of party opposition, incumbent Judge John S. Fine, Republican, and Cambria County Judge Ivan McKenrick, Democrat, were assured of nomination Tuesday.

To Nominate 28 Mayors

Twenty-eight third class cities also will nominate mayoralty candidates Tuesday while scores of other local officers will receive ballot-box endorsement for the general election.

A special congressional election in the eighth (Bucks-Lehigh) district was expected to give some hint of the way political trade winds will blow in next year's crucial presidential election.

Franklin H. Lichtenwalter, 37, of Center Valley, has been selected by the GOP to battle Philip Storch, 36-year-old Bethlehem newspaperman endorsed by the CIO and AFL, for the congressional seat left vacant by the death of Charles L. Gerlach, Republican.

The winner will sit in the second session of the 80th Congress.

Legislative Elections

Three special elections to fill vacancies in the state House of Representatives also will be held Tuesday in the fifth and 27th Philadelphia legislative districts and the fifth district of Lackawanna county. The local option election, according to (Continued on Page Two)

Rural Section Has Heavy Rain

While the city of New Castle escaped with scattered showers last night, rural areas, particularly in Hickory and Scott townships, experienced their hardest downpour of the summer.

The terrific downpour sent streams boiling over their banks and made fields miniature lakes. On the East Brook-Harlanburg road near the old flour mill, the lashing waters caused a sewer to break and the highway was inundated. This morning the water was still running across the road and logs, rocks and gravel made the spot almost impassable.

Pa Newc Observes

One of the land marks in the 600 block of East Washington street, was removed this week. There have been two large maple trees on the property of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shepp of 611 East Washington street. The one next to Oak street, was pulled down by a tractor, sawn up and is being removed. A tree surgeon states the tree is approximately 85 years old.

Tuesday is primary election day, and it is the duty of the thousands of voters in New Castle and Lawrence county, eligible to cast a ballot, to exercise that privilege. One of the great privileges of living in the United States is the right to vote. Don't pass it up.

End of the football game at Tarkenton stadium on Friday night came just in the nick of time to save hundreds of spectators a ducking enroute home. Shortly after the end of the game a heavy downpour struck the city.

Daily Weather Report

United States weather statistics for the 24-hour period ending at 6 o'clock today follow:
Maximum temperature, 78.
Minimum temperature, 66.
Precipitation, .08 inches.
River stage, 7.5 feet.

Statistics for the same date a year ago follow:
Maximum temperature, 88.
Minimum temperature, 54.

Primary Election Interest Mounts In Closing Days

Campaign oratory and solicitation practically winds up tonight in Lawrence County, and the primary election takes place on Tuesday, September 9. While there remain two full days between now and the primary it is an old political axiom that few votes are changed after the Saturday night before the election.

Interest Mounts
In the past week interest has mounted somewhat in the mayor's fight, to the disadvantage of other offices. The fight for the Republican nomination for mayor has had the center of the stage with the candidates for council, county treasurer, commissioner and others, out on the edges of the glare.

The polls open Tuesday morning at seven o'clock Eastern Standard Time and close at 8 p. m. Eastern Standard Time. Between those two hours the polls are to open continuously.

At the close of the polls the balloting will begin.

Report Marine Flyer Is Held In North China

(BULLETIN)

SHANGHAI, Sept. 6.—(INS)—A U. S. marine flyer was reported held in captivity today by Chinese communist forces on the strait-torn Shantung peninsula in north China. The pilot's plane was forced to land in communist territory last week and a marine landing party made a search for him but found only the plane's wreckage.

A U. S. navy representative is understood to have been invited to Chefoo to negotiate for the marine's release but such a step must have official approval from Washington.

Chefoo, now a Chinese communist stronghold on the Shantung peninsula, was the prewar summer station of the U. S. Asiatic fleet.

The landing party detailed to search for the missing aviator was fired on by armed Chinese. The marines exchanged fire with the attackers and withdrew without casualties.

After finding the partially wrecked plane, the search party completely destroyed it and questioned civilian Chinese in the vicinity as to the whereabouts of the pilot. The Chinese were uncommunicative.

New Bedford Pastor Will Preach First Sermon On Sunday

Rev. Charles A. Underwood, S. T. D., new pastor of the Hopeville Presbyterian church at New Bedford, has assumed his duties there and will preach his first sermon as pastor of the church on Sunday morning, at 11 o'clock.

Rev. Underwood, until recently, was pastor of the Memorial Presbyterian church, Lancaster, Pa., where he served for the past 12 and a half years. He preached at the Hopeville church last May, and was called to become the pastor of the church.

The new minister is a graduate of Mount Hermon Preparatory school; Princeton University; Princeton Theological Seminary; Selmsgrove University and graduate work at Temple University.

At the forthcoming meeting of Shenandoah Presbytery, a program of installation will be set up, to install the new pastor to the pulpit of the church.

Rev. and Mrs. Underwood have moved into the Presbyterian manse at New Bedford.

Estranged Husband Is Beaten To Death

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 6.—(INS)—A 43-year-old estranged husband broke into his wife's home in South Philadelphia today, police said, and was beaten to death by his two stepsons.

Thomas Battaglia, a Pacific war veteran, was killed by blows from 25-pound bar bell discs wielded by Nicholas Marino, 20, and Carlos Marino, 18.

The two boys and their mother, Philomena, 45, were slashed repeatedly with a four-inch pen knife brandished by the enraged husband.

TO SEEK AIR RECORD

DENVER, Sept. 6.—(INS)—Mrs. Dianna Converse Cyrus, 24-year-old speed pilot of Santa Paula, Calif., said today in Denver that she plans to attempt to break the "round-the-world" speed record.

Mrs. Cyrus declared that she also hopes to crack the international speed record for women, now held by two Russian pilots.

Italy Appeals For Increased Aid From U. S.

May Secure Larger Apportionment Of American Relief Fund For Europe

CONGRESS CALL IS UNLIKELY

By JOHN R. REICHMANN
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.

—The only immediate answer to Italy's urgent demands for increased aid appeared today to be further withdrawals on the 350-million dollar American relief fund for Europe.

Apportionment of a larger share of the relief fund to Italy is believed necessary to meet Italian Ambassador Tarchiani's appeal to the state department for more aid to his country.

Any further draft on the relief fund, however, would only be supplemental to the pending Italian application for a 250-million dollar loan from the International Bank.

May Be Expedited
If it is found that the application meets the standards set for loans from the bank, action on a credit to Italy undoubtedly will be expedited.

Italy is being given high priority in United States consideration of the rapidly accelerating European (Continued on Page Two)

Hold Farm Wife, And Son, In Death Of Her Husband

LANSING, Mich., Sept. 6.—(INS)—A young Michigan farm wife and her 16-year-old boy ward were in state police custody today in connection with the two-week-old murder of the woman's husband.

Police quoted Mrs. Josephine Marie Upton, 29, of Williamstown, as saying that she and Richard H. Gorman, a ward of a charity organization living at her home, killed her husband on August 21.

Victim of the slaying was 30-year-old Frank G. Upton. His body was found early today rolled in a strip of canvas on a roadside dump near Dexter, Mich.

Report Confession

State Police Sergeant Stanley Peoviak said Mrs. Upton, mother of three small children, confessed that she and Richard ambushed her husband as he drove into the yard of their farm home.

According to the police confession, Richard fired his rifle at the glow of Upton's cigarette. The officer said Mrs. Upton described how she, Richard and his younger brother rolled the body in the canvas, placed it in the trunk of the car and drove it to the dump.

Motive for the killing, Sergeant Peoviak said, was Mrs. Upton's complaint that her husband was cruel to her and her three small children, Carl, 10; Jean, 6, and Geraldine, 2.

President Truman's Car Takes Skid

Brazil Gives Lavish Reception For Truman

By ROBERT G. NIXON
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

RIO DE JANEIRO, Sept. 6.—President Truman is to greet members of the American colony in Rio de Janeiro today and to go sight-seeing in the capital which—in his words—has accorded him the greatest welcome he ever received.

The American chief executive gave this description of Brazil's official reception last night at a lavish state dinner held in the Tamara Palace in his honor.

Three Thousand Guests
Attended by some 3,000 guests—including former King Carol of Romania, with whom Mr. Truman chatted briefly—the banquet was something out of a fabulous Hollywood movie set.

President Eurico Gaspar Dutra of Brazil, in his first public remarks since Mr. Truman's arrival, paid tribute both to the honored American guest and the late President Franklin Roosevelt as exponents of freedom and democracy.

During an exchange of toasts the Brazilian chief executive turned to Mr. Truman and declared: "The peoples of the world have deposited their faith in you, certain that the immense power of your land means justice for the conquered, help for those who need aid, and comfort for the weak."

In reply, the United States chief executive invited Dutra and the latter's wife and daughters to visit Washington. It was then that Mr. Truman said Brazil's welcome was the greatest he had ever received.

Mr. Truman added: "We are working for peace in the world. That is our objective. That is why we fought side by side in World War II."

Overell Murder Case Concludes Fifteenth Week

SANTA ANA, Calif., Sept. 6.—(INS)—Conclusion of the fifteenth week of the Overell murder trial in Santa Ana, Calif., today found the defense seeking the testimony of Navy demolition experts.

George Woods, chief investigator for the legal staff defending Beulah Louise Overell and her sweetheart, George R. Gollum, disclosed that permission is being sought for three Navy officers to appear as witnesses.

Their testimony is wanted to bolster the defense contention that no timing device was used to set off the dynamite explosion on the yacht aboard which wealthy Walter E. Overell and his wife died last March 15.

Congress Republicans Seek Own Information On Europe's Economy

By RAYMOND WILCOVE
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—Strong sentiment appeared to be developing today in Republican circles for Congress to act independently of the administration in determining what measures should be adopted to aid Europe's tottering economy.

While there was no disposition among Republicans to disregard an administration program of aid for Europe, increasing emphasis was being placed on reaching decisions based on congressional rather than White House finding.

Republicans seemed determined this time to work out a program themselves, rather than accept one tailor-made, such as the Truman doctrine with its 400-million dollars for Greece and Turkey to "stop communism."

Will Not Be Rushed
There was increasing reluctance by Republican members to be rushed into anything. The consensus of both House and Senate appeared to be this:

"We want to work the matter out ourselves. Perhaps we'll agree with the administration viewpoint, but (Continued on Page Two)

Agree To Form New Coalition To Rule Greece

(BULLETIN)

ATHENS, Sept. 6.—(INS)—Premier Constantine Tsaldaris, head of the dominant Populist party, and Themistocles Sophoulis, aged liberal opposition leader, agreed today to form a new coalition government.

Tsaldaris is expected to resign shortly when he visits King Paul at the palace and Sophoulis will receive the king's mandate to form a cabinet with himself as premier.

The two leaders have not yet signed a formal agreement on this change, which will represent an American diplomatic victory, but are expected to do so shortly.

The agreement followed days of consultation abetted by American officials in an effort to rally the entire country against the communist-led guerrillas of the north.

Yesterday, U. S. Ambassador Lincoln MacVeath and Loy Henderson, American state department "ambassador-at-large," conferred with Sophoulis at the latter's summer home in Kifissia, 10 miles from Athens.

Bandits Tie Up Family; Get $6,000 And Family Car

CHICAGO, Sept. 6.—(INS)—Three bandits invaded the suburban Beverly Hills, Ill., home of a Chicago meat packer today, bound seven members of the family, and fled in the victim's new automobile with more than $6,000 worth of loot.

The meat packer was Joseph Zuro, 35, owner of the Dependable Beef Co. in Chicago.

Police said the robbers entered the house by tearing the screen out of the first floor bathroom window. They rounded up members of the family, bound their arms and ankles with adhesive tape, then gagged them with neckties.

Also Selecting 'Mrs. America'

PALISADES PARK, N. J., Sept. 6.—(INS)—Two beautiful young married girls, both with light brown hair and green eyes, shared temporarily the title of "Mrs. America."

Mrs. Kay Kiefer, 22, of Ozon Park, N. Y., and Mrs. Connie Spradlin Ballowe, of Washington, D. C., won the honors at the beauty contest preliminaries in Palisades Park.

They will compete in the finals in Florida in November.

Mrs. Kiefer is the widow of a Coast Guardsman killed in the war, and Mrs. Ballowe the wife of a B-25 pilot in the war and now a student at George Washington University.

Toronto Girl May Become Miss America

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Sept. 6.—(INS)—Miss Canada, an 18-year-old honey blonde from Toronto, may become Miss America at midnight tonight.

Pretty Margaret Marshall, who won bathing suit honors last night in the third-day preliminaries of the 1947 Miss America pageant, is the first non-American to compete.

She is five feet, six inches tall, weighs 120 pounds, has a 35-inch bust and blue eyes.

The majority of beauties competing in the finals are southern belles, and it appeared today that some of the Dixie girls might carry off the largest share of the contest's $25,000 in scholarships.

To Be Named Tonight

First place in the talent division went to Elaine Campbell, of Minneapolis. "Miss Minnesota."

Winners to date in the bathing suit division have been Raven Malone, Miss New York, and Peggy Jane Elder, Miss Alabama, (tied), and Evelyn S. Murray, Miss Kentucky.

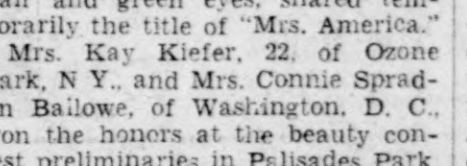

Lined up in the talent section are Pepper Donna Shore, Miss Miami Beach, and Barbara Jo Walker, Miss Memphis.

Convict Widow In Murder Case

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 6.—(INS)—A Philadelphia policeman's widow faced a possible three to six years' prison sentence today in the wake of her conviction of involuntary manslaughter in his fatal shooting.

Mrs. Marie Anna Lombardo, who claimed she only intended to "scare" her husband, Joseph, when she pulled the trigger of his service revolver, was convicted by a jury which deliberated slightly more than five hours.

South Dakota Disaster Worst Since Drought

Estimate Area Of 400 To 700

Spread

HUNDREDS OF CATTLE ARE LOST (BULLETIN)

PIERRE, S. D., Sept. 6.—(INS)—A raging prairie fire, termed the worst single disaster to hit South Dakota since the drought of the 'thirties,' was brought under control early today.

State officials said more than 4,000 head of cattle were destroyed by the fire pastured in the stricken area.

The state border patrol said thousands of dollars were lost in property, hay and other feed, pasturage and stock.

Wildfire which leap-frogged ahead of the main fire burned communication lines, making initial reports on the damage sketchy.

No loss in life had yet been reported.

Four farmhouses and one schoolhouse were destroyed in one county.

Burns In Five Counties
State police said the fire—of unknown origin—burned parts of five counties in the central section of the state. Hit were the northern half of Hyde county, southwestern Faulk, southeastern Potter, Eastern Hughes and Sully counties.

The fire scorched some of the best small game hunting grounds in the state.

A dramatic fight by more than 1,000 firefighters was waged in bringing the blaze under control.

For more than 12 hours, according to the radio office of the state patrol, a volunteer army of 300 men fought the fire in the vicinity of (Continued on Page Two)

Declares Bevin's Gold Suggestion Harms Britain

One-Time Under-Secretary Of State
Critiques Bevin's Remarks On Economic Grounds

LONDON, Sept. 6.—(INS)—Harold MacMillan, prominent conservative M. P., predicted today that Foreign Secretary Bevin's suggestions for the redistribution of America's Fort Knox gold would do Britain serious harm in the U. S.

The one-time undersecretary of state criticized Bevin's remarks on economic and diplomatic grounds. He said:

"Bevin suggested that the United States, like a sort of Santa Claus, redistribute the gold reserve now lying idle."

"I don't think this is very good economics and I'm sure it is not good diplomacy."

"We cannot eat gold or burn it. I am afraid the Fort Knox speech will do almost as much harm in the United States as Bevin's sneer against Americans as money lenders."

MacMillan, speaking at Hawarden in Cheshire county, appealed for a "new democratic move to save Britain."

See Employment, Industry Keeping Peak In District

PSES Predicts Two Months Of High Employment, Activity
In Plants

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 6.—(INS)—The Pennsylvania state employment service Friday predicted at least two months peak employment and high industrial activity in the Pittsburgh district.

The agency report showed an increase in employment in Pittsburgh after the trucking strike in July. In addition, the county board of assistance reported that its load had decreased 100 to 200 cases a week for 13 weeks.

The agency reported, however, that peak employment seems to have been reached in the basic iron and steel producing plants, although steel fabricating firms expect to hire additional workers.

The PSES also indicated that the employment peak has not yet been reached. Seasonal demands, turnover needs, and planned expansion will call for at least 4,000 more workers, including many skilled tradesmen. Although male workers are in greatest demand, it appears that more women will be needed in trades.

The shortage extends into professional fields. All trained engineers and pharmacists are needed. Three factors were included in the report which assure steady employment in the near future. One was the seasonal increases in retailing and wholesaling plus peak business non-manufacturing fields during September.

Heavy activity was predicted for the next two months in transportation machinery, paper, chemicals, and several other industries. Third, the PSES report showed that 2,300 new business projects employing 10,000 workers had been started in the area between January 1 and August 1.

ITALY APPEALS FOR INCREASED AID FROM U. S.

crisis. This is due to the fact that Italy is one of the European states regarded as most vulnerable to communist encroachment.

Italy also is in a special class by virtue of the fact that she has no currency reserves or foreign exchange with which to meet the drying up of the supply of dollars. In this, she is in a separate position from France and Britain, even though the former, too, is threatened with communist domination.

Officials held little hope, however, that Italy would manage to obtain an additional loan of 100 million dollars from the diminishing funds available to the export-import bank.

Urgency Of Situation
Developments in Italy and the scant margin by which French Premier Paul Ramadier won a vote of confidence in the French parliament stressed to U. S. officials the urgency of the European situation.

However, developments on the home front gave little encouragement to suggestions that it might be necessary to call a special session of Congress to meet the emergency.

Sen. Vandenberg (R) Mich. threw cold water on the special session suggestion yesterday. He took the position that the responsibility to issue the call rests with President Truman, now planning a leisurely return to Washington from Brazil aboard the Battleship Missouri.

Need Enlightenment
Vandenberg, president of the Senate and GOP foreign policy leader, took the position that neither the Congress nor his own Senate foreign relations committee could meet until it had something to discuss.

This appeared to be a demand that a concrete Marshall plan be offered for consideration or, if a special session is to meet the immediate emergency, facts and figures be made available to Congress. The European nations would have to make an extremely strong case for every dollar of aid they may receive, either as a stop-gap or under a long-range Marshall plan.

Stronger Bangs Disease Control Measure Imminent

HARRISBURG, Sept. 6.—(INS)—Warlike modifications of Bangs disease controls were slated today to be withdrawn by the agriculture department September 15 when more stringent rules will become effective.

The department announced it would discard provisions permitting retention in disease free areas of certain cows reacting positively to tests. Allowances under certain conditions were made during hostilities because of the great demand for milk products, it was explained.

The change of regulations will put the program on a pre-war basis, the department said.

Start Back Fires
A sudden shift in the wind enabled the men to start back-fires along the highway. Leaders of the fire crews credited this shift with saving the three villages—which have a combined population of more than 2,000.

The fires reportedly began yesterday 40 miles east of Pierre in the vicinity of the three villages. They joined and swept northward about 20 miles on a front varying from 20 to 27 miles.

Shortly after they joined the wind shifted and sent the flames rolling along the path it originally followed. Astute firefighters countered with backfires, and brought the blaze under control.

Thick, black clouds of smoke still hung over the area, and pilots flying over the area were unable to give complete reports of the damage. Estimates of the area burned from 400 to 700 square miles.

CONGRESS G. O. P. SEEK OWN FACTS ON EUROPE'S ECONOMY

we don't want to be faced with a fait accompli that leaves us no alternative but to accept an administration program without change."

Sen. Vandenberg (R) Mich. expressed this new viewpoint when he told newsmen that "you've got to sense the overriding congressional sentiment which has inspired the tremendous interest on the part of members of the House and Senate to inform themselves on what is happening abroad."

Congress To Inform Itself
The Senate Foreign Relations committee chairman added:

"Congress intends to inform itself adequately before it takes any action. Congress is going to demand a more completely adequate presentation of facts than ever before."

Numerous members of Congress, in groups and individually, are busy touring the world in search of information or are planning to do so soon.

Rep. Robertson (R) N. D. commented somewhat similarly that "we're not going to sign any blank checks this time; we want to have all the facts before we do anything." Robertson is a member of the House Appropriations committee, which must vote whatever funds are approved for Europe.

Sen. McCarthy (R) Wis., a member of the important banking committee, accused the administration of "jumping from one crisis to another." McCarthy complained that the "administration considers" matter for four or five months and then feels Congress should accept it in a few weeks.

McCarthy declared that if a special session of Congress is needed, it should be called, but he said Congress must have sufficient time to consider what assistance should be voted for Europe.

Veterans Increase

It is expected that the student body will number more veterans than last year. Few of the veterans have encountered academic troubles and the college has been highly pleased with their classroom work and their general attitude.

Returning students will find three government surplus buildings practically completed. Included are an infirmary, a recreation hall and a classroom building. The structures are valued at $65,000 and were acquired by the college for the cost of transportation and erection.

Newest addition to the faculty is David E. MacArthur of Cleveland, O., who will be in the speech department. He is a 1947 graduate of Western Reserve University. He will teach Fine Arts, Fundamentals and Speech, Advanced Acting and serve as associate director of the Little Theatre.

lots will be counted and the judge of election takes the ballot box to the court house. While the vote Tuesday is expected to be light, it will still take some time to count them, due to the number of candidates.

In the county three special local option elections take place. Shenango and Wayne township and South New Castle boro will vote upon whether or not liquor and beer licenses shall be legal in the communities. There are two questions to vote upon, and these are on the bottom of the ballot.

The voter can vote yes or no on whether liquor licenses should be had and also whether or not beer licenses should be legal. To vote fully on the question in the three precincts, will take two votes. But tonight practically finishes the campaign. Monday is the calm before the storm. Tuesday is the storm if it can be called that.

Allow Priests, Nuns Shanghai Entrance

SHANGHAI, Sept. 6.—(INS)—Two Roman Catholic priests and three American nuns from the Maryknoll Mission were finally permitted to land in Shanghai today through the intervention of the apostolic nuncio and diplomatic representatives.

Newest addition to the faculty is David E. MacArthur of Cleveland, O., who will be in the speech department. He is a 1947 graduate of Western Reserve University. He will teach Fine Arts, Fundamentals and Speech, Advanced Acting and serve as associate director of the Little Theatre.

Says Soviet Is Fomenting German Revolt

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 6.—(INS)—Walter C. Koenig, president of American Relief for Central Europe, charged today that Russia propagandists are advocating revolt by Germans in the U. S. occupation zone.

Koenig, just returned from Germany, said the American Military Government "apparently was powerless to prevent Soviet agents from operating."

Overthrow of American military authority by violence, Koenig said, is being urged by the Soviet-trained organizers.

He said German prisoners returning from Russia are ill and broken in body. Koenig's organization is a Quaker affiliate.

DR. NUGENT ENDORSES ALLEN FOR CORONER

Many of my friends have been wondering where I stand in the present Coroner fight.

I wish to state that Charles E. Allen, Republican candidate for Coroner, has served me as deputy over a period of eight years, and that I have found him most efficient and capable.

I have no hesitancy in recommending him to the Republican voters of Lawrence County as highly qualified to perform the duties of this most important office.

DR. T. FRANK NUGENT,

SILVER WEDDING

SURPRISE FRIDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Brinton of 125 Cienmore boulevard, were pleasantly surprised Friday evening when a group of friends gathered at their home to celebrate their silver wedding anniversary.

Presentation of lovely gifts in remembrance of the occasion was made by Fred Sheppard.

Mrs. George Sherman served dainty refreshments assisted by Mrs. Paul Berry and Mrs. Clifford H. Young.

Mr. and Mrs. Brinton were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Richards, Moody avenue, here on September 5, 1922 by Dr. C. J. Williamson, then pastor of Highland U. P. church. They have one son, Bobby T. R. Brinton.

JUNIOR GUILD TO

START SEWINGS

Board of the Junior Guild of Jameson Memorial hospital was entertained Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Travis French, 120 East Sheridan avenue, when it was decided that gild sewings at the hospital will start on Thursday, September 11.

Hours will be 10 to 3 in the hospital solarium and a good turnout of the membership is anticipated.

HERSHEY TUREEN

DINNER MONDAY

Hershey auxiliary of the First Presbyterian church will open its season of monthly meetings with a tureen dinner in the church dining room Monday evening at 6:30 o'clock.

"The Burma Road" will be the subject of a talk by Lee Miller Smith on the program planned for the evening. There will be special music and devotionals on the theme "Beyond Commonplace Goodness" will be led by Mrs. J. A. McNeill.

Hostesses are Mrs. W. H. Humphrey, Mrs. Earl Cass, Mrs. J. E. White, Mrs. P. H. Bridenbaugh, Mrs. A. A. Webb, Mrs. Jean Forest and Mrs. H. E. Golder.

I.V.D. Class Meets

I.V.D. class gathered Thursday evening in the parlors of the First Christian church for a most interesting social time with a good attendance present.

Lovely flowers decorated the table from which a lunch was served by Mrs. Woods Anderson and Mrs. Carl Kirchner, hostesses.

Miss Helen Eriser of Sharon was an out-of-town guest.

It was planned to have a "bakeless bake sale" at the October meeting when Mrs. Robert C. Clark and Mrs. E. A. Hennon will be hostesses.

HELENA LUNCHEON

AT CHURCH FRIDAY

At the first fall meeting of the Helena auxiliary of the First Presbyterian church in the church Friday afternoon, Mrs. J. J. McIlvaine was the guest of honor.

Preceding luncheon at 1 o'clock, prayer group met at 12:30 under the leadership of Mrs. C. N. Moore for study of a new book on spiritual life, "One World—One Lord".

Luncheon was served in the dining room at a table centered with a lovely arrangement of floated pink dahlia blossoms from the garden of Mrs. C. W. Wettich. Officers, Mrs. Robert N. McBurney, Mrs. Alice McKillop, Mrs. W. K. Conover, Mrs. James Spear, and Mrs. G. O. White, served luncheon.

Mrs. McIlvaine was presented with a corsage and gift on behalf of the Helena membership by Mrs. McBurney. She responded graciously.

At the program in the parlors after luncheon, Miss Nell Faland conducted worship service on the theme, "Thy Will Be Done" assisted by Mrs. Alice McKillop who read the Ten Commandments. It closed with a solo, "Have Thine Own Way Lord" sung by Mrs. Morgan Jones accompanied by Mrs. McIlvaine.

Mrs. C. N. Moore introduced Mrs. Joel McKee, who gave a very graphic description of the gift sent by the Empress of Japan to the women of the Presbyterian church of the U. S. brought from Tokyo by Rev. Tamaki Uemura, and of the special copy of the Bible sent to the Empress in return by the church women.

"Why They Do It" was the subject of the chapter of the study book, "Committee Unto Us" reviewed by Mrs. Moore.

Mrs. W. K. Conover gave the treasurer's report and then received the summer offering to be used for medical work in foreign and national fields.

Mrs. McBurney extended thanks to the committees in charge of the luncheon arrangements.

On October 3 the auxiliary will meet with Mrs. M. A. Bickett, Mrs. C. C. Aubel, Mrs. W. H. Aubel, Mrs. Tase Bauder, and Mrs. John Butz as hostesses.

SPOON CLUB BRIDGE

AT COUNTRY CLUB

New Castle Country club was the scene of a dainty treat luncheon for Spoon club members Friday afternoon. Following luncheon at one o'clock tables of contract bridge were in play.

High score prize was won by Mrs. William B. Gormly, and the keeno prize went to Miss May Hoyt.

Mrs. John Elder was elected president to serve for the coming year, and Mrs. William Gormly, secretary.

Luncheon arrangements were in charge of Mrs. S. W. Perry.

On Friday, Sept. 19, Mrs. John Elder, East Falls street, will be hostess.

FLOWERS DISPLAYED

AT WALMO LUNCHEON

Twelve lovely flowers arrangements brought by members were a feature of the September meeting of Walmo Garden club at the home of Mrs. Richard Marquis, Walmo, on Thursday, with Mrs. W. C. Hilleman as co-hostess.

The splendid variety of season's blooms on display extended even to Wood Roses from Honolulu.

Luncheon was served at 1 o'clock and following there was a report of the recent Garden Council meeting given by Mrs. Leo Dover.

Members were reminded of the current New Wilmington Garden club flower show and also of the coming benefit auction for the Newshannock Township firemen's organization.

As a special project Mrs. A. H. Mellor was appointed to secure information relative to the eradication of poison ivy and web worms in the community.

It was announced that a field trip to the Delmona Benedict Shrub Gazebo in Poland is planned for the latter part of October in lieu of the regular meeting. Mrs. W. C. Hilleman is in charge of arrangements.

Vacation highlights were given in response to roll call.

For the program, Mrs. Robert Genkinger told about fall bulb planting, including interesting hints from her own experience with bulbs.

In conclusion there was discussion of what to do this month in the garden.

RUSSO-LOMBARDO

WEDDING PERFORMED

A double ring ceremony performed in St. Lucy's church, at 9:30 a. m., on August 31, united in marriage, Miss Jean Russo, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Russo, 218 South Cedar street, and Louis Lombardo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Lombardo, of Wabash avenue.

Rev. Fr. Sebastian Ippolito officiated at the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin gown, embroidered with seed pearls. Her long veil fell from an orange bino crown, and she wore a gold corsage and carried white roses centered with an orchid.

Miss Lena Lepore, as maid of honor wore a blue gown with pink accessories, and carried pink roses. Bridesmaids, Madeline Russo, Caroline Rozzi, Delore Lombardi, wore pink gowns, and carried red roses.

Frank Pelosi served as best man. Ushers: Benito Lombardo, Elio Piccaro and Benny Rozzi.

A wedding breakfast was served at the bridegroom's home, and a wedding dinner was served at a restaurant, followed by a reception in Columbus hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Lombardo departed on a wedding trip to Niagara Falls, and will reside at 106 Wabash avenue, upon their return.

Mr. Lombardo a graduate of Senior High school, a discharged veteran served two years in the U. S. Navy, and is employed at the Pennsylvania Railroad.

TEA HONORS SENIOR

NURSES AT JAMESON

Jameson Memorial hospital nurses homes was the scene of a lovely tea for the graduating class of the Jameson hospital School of Nursing Friday afternoon given by the student nurses of the hospital.

Between the hours of 2 and 5 o'clock tea was served to about 100 of the hospital staff and guests from a table colorfully decorated with a floral centerpiece of delphinium in tones of dark and light blue, pink roses, and yellow poms flanked by lighted yellow candles.

Mrs. Roger W. Rowland and Mrs. C. Robert Youngquist presided at the tea table.

On Wednesday evening the graduating nurses will again be entertained when the Jameson-Shenango alumnae have invited them to attend a dinner at 7:30 o'clock in Harlansburg.

Commencement exercises for the class will be Friday.

WOODARD-OLMSTEAD

ENGAGEMENT TOLD

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil E. Woodard of 820 Beckford street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Carol Grace Woodard, and Robert Olmstead, son of Mr. and Mrs. Myron R. Olmstead of 411 Fifth street. Both Miss Woodard and her fiancé are graduates of New Castle high school.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Miss Woodard is employed in the wire chief's office at the Bell Telephone Company and Mr. Olmstead is nitric operator at the American Cyanamid Company.

ZIMMERMAN-MAY

EVENING WEDDING

First Baptist church was the scene of the wedding Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock of Miss Myrtle Elizabeth Zimmerman of 1019 Moravia street and Opl. William May of Byrd Field, Richmond, Va. Rev. Oliver W. Hurst officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, Thomas P. Zimmerman, the bride was lovely in a white slipper satin gown, with three-quarter length veil with pearl beaded crown. As her only jewelry, she wore a double string of pearls. Her bouquet was of white rosebuds.

As maid of honor, Miss Pauline Mitchell was attired in a baby pink crepe gown. Bridesmaids, Shirley Wolters and Twila Haden, wore gowns of baby blue net and taffeta. Miss Helen Zimmerman, as her sister's train bearer, wore a gown of yellow taffeta.

Frederick Gill served as best man with Dennis Newhard and Dorriance Newhard acting as ushers.

Nuptial music was played by Edward Jenkins with Mrs. Helen Clark singing "I Love You Truly".

Immediately following the ceremony and congratulatory period, a reception for 50 guests was held in the church dining room. The couple left for a motor trip to Pittsburgh and Youngstown.

Mrs. May, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas P. Zimmerman, 1019 Moravia street, attended Shenango and New Castle high schools.

Mr. May, son of Mrs. Lillian May of McGeheysville, Va., and Charles May, of East Long avenue, attended Shenango high school and is serving in the AAF at Byrd Field, Richmond, Va., attached to the 61st A.A.R.U. (Reserve Training).

Mrs. May will join her husband in two weeks at Richmond, Va., where they will make their home until his enlistment is completed.

J. O. Y. CLASS

INITIAL SESSION

J. O. Y. class of the First Baptist church began its first social activities of the fall with an assembly Friday evening in the home of Mrs. Raymond McCartney, Hillcrest avenue.

New officers for the coming year were installed by Mrs. Charles Metzler, teacher of the group. Those installed follow: President, Mrs. Jesse Joseph; vice-president, Mrs. David Harlan; secretary, Mrs. Howard Frew; assistant secretary, Miss Grace Barwell; treasurer, Mrs. Orville Grossman, and assistant treasurer, Mrs. T. H. Winter. Plans were also made for work of the winter months.

After the class enjoyed games, directed by Mrs. Joseph, lunch was served with Mrs. Paul Smith aiding Mrs. McCartney.

The group will be entertained Friday evening, October 3, at the home of Mrs. Frank Patterson, 416 Blunston avenue.

THETA UPSILONS

HAVE CORN ROAST

Theta Upsilon alumnae were entertained at a corn and wiener roast at the home of Mrs. Robert Jamison, 222 West Sheridan avenue, on Thursday evening. This meeting of the association marked the first of its fall season of monthly meetings.

At 6 o'clock the picnic dinner was served at small tables set on the lawn where decorations were carried out in a garden theme with garden flowers and miniature garden tools.

Several new members were extended a welcome and there were guests from Sharon and New Wilmington present.

Next meeting will be October 15 in the home of Mrs. Patrick Cahill, Chapin road.

WHO IS THE PUBLIC?

In the general debate in the newspapers and over the radio as to the rights of management and the rights of labor, one occasionally is reminded that the public also has some rights and that these ought to be considered when there are strikes, lockouts and boycotts. All of which seems to make good sense, as the public itself is larger than management or labor.

We may well ask, therefore, why the public as the public is not more valuable? Certainly it buys the goods and pays the bills which keep management and labor going.

One point to be inquired into is just who is the public, after all? In the United States we have no distinct capitalist, labor and consuming classes because all are interwoven and each of us has interests which are often conflicting.

Take the average worker, for instance. It may be maintained that when a wage agreement comes up he has an interest which is exactly opposed to that of his employer, although this fact is sometimes more apparent than real, as management and labor both have a real interest in the success of the industry with which they are connected.

But when we speak of the rights of the public we must remember that a strike in a certain industry affects not only management and labor in that industry but management and labor in other industries, as well as the professional, the agricultural and the so-called white collar classes, together with those who live on savings or pensions.

In this country all go up and down together. The worker is often a capitalist. If you don't believe this just look into the records of ownership of the various industries of our country. There are hundreds of thousands of stockholders in most of our great industries, and most of them own only a few shares. In addition there are millions of policy holders in our life insurance companies, and these people, too, are capitalists because of the investments they hold through the insurance companies. Often members of the management group are workers, too, in that they belong to the wage-earning or salaried groups.

In talking about the interests of the public, therefore, we have to consider just who is the public. The so-called "classes" in America are so intermingled that they defy European understanding.

ENGLISH IS IT

A hundred delegates from 30 nations assembled in New York for a world conference on the teaching profession agreed that English has become the world's most important language.

Formerly French was the second language of most people whose contacts called for command of a language in addition to their native tongue. It was recognized as the language of diplomacy. German was the second language of many scientists who felt that they had to read German scientific works long before they appeared in translation.

Teachers at the conference reported that by common action they have advanced English to the point at which Esperanto and other synthetic languages were aimed—to enable people of all nations to share a common language.

One of the difficulties encountered in the postwar effort to bring about international harmony is the language impediment to orderly discussion. Efforts to overcome this difficulty do not account for the amazing growth of English courses in schools throughout the war. The movement has been speeding up for several years. But representatives of the United Nations will certainly encourage the movement as they swing toward English as the world language.

American and British scientists have so far outdistanced the Germans, French and Russians that they have forced alert scientists everywhere to acquire a command of English. The English-speaking people should not, however give up their interest in other languages.

A Minnesota boy set fire to 200 dollar bills his mother had saved. It fits the theory that modern youths think their parents have money to burn.

Inter-American conference being held in Rio seems to lack something. Perhaps it's Gromyko's "no" which adds so much charm to United Nations sessions.

A woman is mad because the faces on American currency are those of men only. Probably the exception that proves the rule that women would rather have their hands on it.

America's idea of human rights doesn't go beyond a cottage, an ice box and an automobile, a Russian says. A Russian whose ideas of human rights went that far would be shot.

Washington, which during the war distributed leaflets to soldiers explaining that there was no difference between Russian and American fighting men, now is distributing a book explaining how to identify Russian spies.

Private Enterprise In Ruhr Unlikely

ESSEN, BRITISH ZONE OF GERMANY, Sept. 5.—Just outside of Essen is the Villa Hugel, one of the most remarkable private homes in the world. In fact, to speak of this place of 450 rooms as a private home is a slight misuse of the phrase.

Villa Hugel is the home of the Krupp family, former masters of the Ruhr industrial empire. It has been occupied for two years by the North German Coal Commission, the British agency that supervises coal production. British coal experts have their offices in the ballroom, the bedrooms and the antechambers of this vast pile.

Not long ago, Frau Bertha Krupp wrote to the British government in London to announce that she wanted her house returned to her. Needless to say, the coal commission offices are still in the Villa Hugel and will be there as long as the commission needs office space.

But the very fact that Frau Krupp could make such a request indicates the mentality of this reigning family. As a Britisher put it, they felt themselves slightly above royalty and slightly beneath the deity. And that seems to have been the attitude of most Germans toward them, from all reports they were treated with something of the reverence accorded the emperor of Japan.

Recently, one of the daughters returned to inspect the family home. The Krupp servants, who now wait on the British, practically fell on their faces at sight of her. The fact that Gustav Krupp, head of the family, and his son Alfred have been indicted as war criminals seems to have made little difference in the attitude.

Even though invading troops passed through Villa Hugel after 80 percent of the town of Essen had been razed or severely damaged by bombing, this 19th century palace is still more or less intact. When you go from the great halls, with their priceless Bayeux and Gobelin tapestries, to the former air-raid bunkers where many miners' families are living, the contrast could not be greater.

The air-raid bunkers were built (Continued on Page Seven)

USE OF FRUIT KNIVES AND FORKS

Question: I have a set of fruit knives. Where and when should they be placed on the table?

Answer: They should be used whenever fruit is served. The fruit fork and knife are not placed on the table when it is set. They are brought in with the dessert. When the fruit plate with the finger bowl and dolly between are brought in, the fork should be placed on the left side of the finger bowl and the knife on the right side.

Question: My husband, a few days ago, was invited to a party, at which there were both men and women. I received no invitation. Is this unusual? Just what is my position and should my husband attend?

Answer: It is very unusual. It occurred either through an oversight or through gross ignorance. An invitation to anything other than a stag party should never be sent to a married man unless his wife is included. The only other exception is of course, business conferences where only those (both men and women) directly concerned need be invited. Your husband should show his disapproval by declining.

Question: My daughter has just this season transferred to a new and more fashionable school than she has attended heretofore. She has invited one of her school chums to our home for a weekend and the child has obtained her mother's permission to come. My sister says I must write to the little girl's mother. Must I?

Answer: Yes, you must write to the child's mother and explain that you would like to have the little girl visit your daughter explaining the dates during which you intend having her. After she returns home, her mother should write a "bread and butter" letter to you, and so should the child.

GOLFING PARSON'S EXAMPLE

The golfing parson's speech is mild. To trouble he seems reconciled. When from the sand his ball won't budge, He merely smiles and says: "Oh fudge!"

I've often seen him miss a putt. But all he muttered was: "Tut-tut!" When off the green his best shot trickles, His strongest phrase will be: "Oh pickles!"

The golfing parson lives his creed; Goes as he tries his flock to lead. If his approach hits a tree, He says no more than: "Gracious me!"

I think I try the best I can. Myself to be so good a man. But when my golf shots go astray It's not, "Oh pickles," that I say. (Copyright, 1947, Edgar A. Guest)

Hay Fever Season

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

TRIAL PROMOTIONS HARD

Last June many school children were promoted on probation. This means that the child and his parents were informed that he will be given a trial of several weeks in the grade to which he was promoted; that if he makes progress satisfactory to the teacher he will remain in this grade; that if he does not make such progress he will be demoted to the grade in which he studied last year.

For an occasional child this plan may have the desired effect of spurring him on to his best efforts. To many a child it will be like the "Sword of Damocles" hanging over his neck. Almost every day his teacher may warn and threaten him with demotion. His parents, who may have reminded him constantly during the summer of the danger of demotion, may increase such warnings. Then if he is at last demoted he will surely feel disgraced.

Adapting The Program

Unless the teacher adapts her program to give this child the kind of work at school he can succeed at, he might be better off to be put back right away. By checking on his reading and other basal subjects she should be able to ascertain rather easily his degree of readiness to go on. If she feels sure he would do best to return to the former grade it would be less humiliating to him to go there at once. Also she should confer with his parents, showing them how to foster a favorable attitude in him, whether he is demoted or remains where he is.

My fellow parents: Please don't torment this child. He already has great worries, even though he might pretend not to care. Be humane. Try to help him do his best under any conditions. You certainly know that threatening and shaming will do more harm than good. Find out from his teacher how you may help him at home in any or all his school subjects. Hiring a quiet, understanding teacher to guide him on books for half an hour or so daily for a few months might bring wonderful results.

When you help him at his lessons be sure you manage your emotions well. The moment you feel the least bit vexed at him, walk away from him. You can't be fit when angry to be in his presence with books. Write me at 235 East 45th Street, New York, N. Y., enclosing a stamped envelope and ask for my bulletin, "Parents and the Child's Homework."

If I were a teacher of a child promoted to my room on probation, I would not demote him. I would keep him "for better or for worse," and assign him to learn what is easy and simple enough for him to enjoy satisfaction from achievement. If, for example, he were now in the fifth grade and could read well from a book of the second or third grade level I would give him to read materials no harder, but material that would appeal to him—well illustrated books borrowed from the library, or found at a bookstore or dime store.

From Me To You

The first football game of the season is over... a very nice crowd attended and beside a wee bit of rain... nothing exciting happened. New Castle won again... always very pleasing... our scouts tell us that the game was somewhat on the slow side, but really... what could they expect... warm weather, the first game of the season... Practice makes perfect, so there should be some mighty interesting playing before the season is over.

Words Of Wisdom

If thy friends be of better quality than thyself, thou mayest be sure of two things: the first, they will be more careful to keep thy counsel, because they have more to lose than thou hast; the second, they will esteem thee for thyself, and not for that which thou dost possess.—Sir W. Raleigh.

Looking At Life

By Erich Brandeis

Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt has announced that she and her son, Elliott, will hereafter farm their estate in Hyde Park and that this farming is not going to be the gentleman's (or lady's) kind, but a serious business with the hoped for profit that any serious business ought to produce.

Mrs. Roosevelt is to be heartily commended for her intentions, but I do want to remind her of a story they tell about the late J. P. Morgan.

He, too, did considerable farming on his Long Island estate, and he, too, went at it in a businesslike way. One day he invited some friends to his farm.

The day was hot and the multi-millionaire banker offered his guests refreshments.

"What will you have," he asked, "milk or champagne?" They both cost me about the same."

I farmed a patch of my place last year.

Being busy with my work in New York, I could not do much of it myself.

So I hired a part-time man at $1.50 an hour and asked him to take care of my farm.

He certainly did.

First he bought $49 worth of fertilizer.

He worked two hours spreading it and sat down under a tree and ate his lunch.

Then he smoked a cigarette and took a little nap—at $1.50 an hour.

To make a long story short, we had some radishes, a few beans, more tomatoes than we could possibly eat, can or give away, and a million beetles, aphids, worms and other insects and pests.

At the end of the season I did some figuring.

According to my books, each radish cost me approximately $2.98 and each bean in the neighborhood of 49 cents. My mathematics is not good enough to figure out what the peas came to.

Farming is wonderful. I agree with Mrs. Roosevelt that we should use our land for good purposes and not just let it lie idle or cultivate it merely for lawns and gardens.

But there is no such thing as a "part-time farmer" or a peripatetic farmer.

You can't be in California and Connecticut at the same time, or in Honolulu and Hyde Park.

Farming is work, hard work, constant work.

Either you give all your time to it and make a little money and have the satisfaction of having grown something, or you are a gentleman farmer, which is a synonym for sucker.

So, good luck to you, Mrs. Roosevelt!

Which will you have—milk or champagne? (Copyright, 1947, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Health Talks

By DR. W. A. WOMER
City Health Superintendent

SOUNDS
People who have good hearing are fortunate. We do not seem to do as much for the ears as for the eyes.

There seem to be different kinds of deafness.

Some people can hear people talking but cannot distinguish the words.

The ear is a very delicate organ. It should have good care in childhood.

Ears are likely to be damaged by colds or sore throat or coughs. Prompt medical care is wise at the first sign of ear trouble.

If the ear trouble is properly treated deafness in later life may be prevented.

It seems that ear trouble in childhood may be the cause of deafness in old age.

It looks like a good harvest season—except that, due to Mr. Truman, no taxes are being cut.

Harmless Hollywood 'Pinks'

(By Holmes Alexander)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 6.—I'm glad I'm not J. Parnell Thomas whose House Committee on Un-American Activities is going to hold an investigation involving Hollywood screen writers. The probe which opens on September 24 will first subpoena Hans Eisler, an Austrian musician, but it will later trot out a number of movie authors.

Thomas may not know it but he's letting himself in for more trouble than Senator Brewster recently encountered with Howard Hughes. Whereas Brewster tangled with only one California genius, Thomas is taking on a whole pack of prodigies. And that's not the half of it. Brewster was only questioning Hughes' business methods. Thomas is getting into the deep and tricky waters of literary criticism. It is much safer to accuse a plane-maker of a $40 million series of flops than to find fault with a writer's creative productions.

Flight Is More Serious

To make Chairman Thomas' plight the more perilous, he will undertake to read "meaning" into screen-play dialogue. It seems to be the Committee's suspicion that Communist propaganda has been artfully inserted into the movies. Thus when a hero murmurs sweet nothings to the woman he loves, Thomas will try to show that the writer of the dialogue is often planting un-American ideas.

Example: "Darling, let's get married. Two can live as cheaply as one." This is obviously an anti-Capitalist notion because it suggests collectivism. Or: "Honey, leave us ankle over to Park Avenue and see how the other half lives." Any good snapper for un-Americanism can detect subversive social elements in that sort of talk. In the spirit of helpfulness I'd like to call the Thomas Committee's attention to the world's most famous love scene, the balcony scene from "Romeo and Juliet." The words are Shakespeare's but I am supplying the parentheses:

"But, soft! what light through yonder window breaks?
It is the east (Russia), and Juliet (Communism) is the sun!

Arise, fair sun, and kill the envious moon (Capitalism),
Who is already sick and pale with grief (failure of Democracy).

That thou her maid (class distinction) are far more fair than she."

Parlor Pinks Are Abundant

Shakespeare, as any Red-baiter can see from the above, followed the Communist party line, and many a Hollywood scribbler will find himself subjected to just that sort of critical analysis. If it's parlor pinks the Thomas Committee is looking for, Hollywood is the place, all right. But it takes a timorous Congressman to tremble for the safety of his country at the hands of these plush film-dramatists. As John Gunther points out in his current best-seller, "Inside U. S. A.," screen writers are notoriously overpaid. For that reason, says Gunther, they "feel a sense of subconscious guilt at earning so much money. Hence they tend to submerge or deflect their bad conscience by generosity to all kinds of leftist 'causes' and escape-valve politics."

There is, however, considerable difference between that guilty feeling and a genuine desire to destroy the system which makes high salaries possible.

Nowhere is the difference better illustrated than in the reaction of screen writers to the 75 per cent British tax on American films. Such a tax would drastically cut picture profits and writers' pay. It could conceivably drive many an overpaid back out of his ocean-front villa and back to his Grub Street attic where he could more fittingly write for the Daily Worker instead of Warner Brothers.

Did Not Welcome Deliverance

But did the writers welcome this happy deliverance? On the contrary the Screen Writers Guild, membership 885, immediately filed protest with the Treasury and State Departments, bulwarks of Capitalism and democratic free enterprise. The U. S. government was beseeched to "use every effort to effect equitable adjustment." In fact, the writers suddenly discovered that the British tax threatened not only their easeful way of life but "the peace and better understanding among nations."

There is something reassuringly American about this anxiety to hang on to a good job and to relate one's own comfort to the cause of humanity. Every Chamber of Commerce in the country regularly announces that local prosperity is a good thing for the rest of the world. I think Mr. Thomas will learn more about Hollywood writers from this example than by trying to see "meaning" in their dialogue. Indeed, I think the Committee could cure many a Communist by shipping him out to Hollywood on a script-writer's salary.

In View Of The News

By J. C. Ostreicher, INS Foreign Director

British Foreign Secretary Bevin has decisively defeated the pro-Russian laborite party critics at the annual trades union congress in England.

Their demand for resumed Anglo-Russian trade talks and resistance to the so-called "dollar diplomacy" of the United States was rejected overwhelmingly.

The leftist labor demand makes strange reading because it is known that the reason that the Anglo-Soviet trade negotiations broke down is because Russia wanted American dollars from Britain—which has not enough of them herself.

Want American Dollars
Nearly every nation in the world wants American dollars. That is the crux of the chaotic situation during the postwar reconstruction period.

It is the situation which the Marshall aid plan aims to meet partly.

But the state department officials acknowledge that the situation is so serious that "stop-gap" aid is necessary even before any Marshall plan can be effected.

Bevin's "aside" comments made in various foreign policy speeches are notorious. That is the category for his statement calling on the United States to "redistribute" her Fort Knox gold reserves.

Nobody knows just what Bevin has in mind. American officials say Britain and the world does not need gold—not even dollars—but in fact the grain, goods, and machinery with which to rebuild her economy.

One authoritative American in London says Bevin's gold statement "just doesn't make sense."

Emphasizing his words are those of a leading delegate to the European economic cooperation committee—the 16-nation group devising a "shopping list" to be presented to the United States under the Marshall plan.

He says an immediate shipment to Europe of substantial quantities of American wheat would force down food prices within two years and lay the basis for continental economic recovery.

Some Americans interpret Bevin's statement as a devious way of asking for outright, substantial American aid. It has angered some Americans for two reasons:

First, they feel Bevin dangles a "cure-all" before his people with the vague reference to American aid, second, he does this at a time when his own government has failed to settle a strike by miners in nearly 50 pits with a resultant loss of 200,000 tons of coal—a key to British recovery.

At any rate the so-called "dollar diplomacy" which Bevin's critics attack appears to be with the world for a long time to come.

Russia's refusal to aid in continental recovery under the Marshall plan is forcing British leftists into a tight corner as their own nation fights for survival.

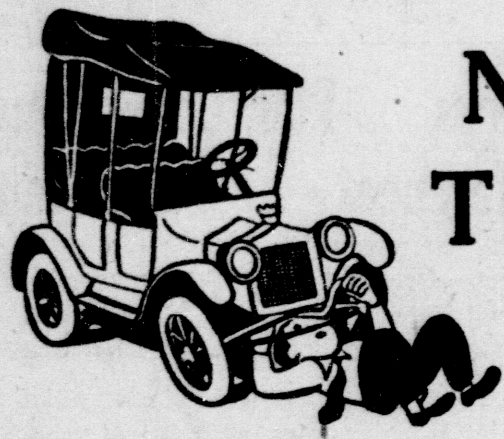

And the results of the trades union congress would indicate that the number of pro-Russian leftists is contracting rather than increasing as they are caught between the "do-something" recovery policy of the United States and the "do-nothing" policy of Russia.

Communism Denounced By Sen. Pepper

TAMPA, Fla., Sept. 6.—(INS)—Florida's outspoken Democratic Sen. Claude Pepper, who has often been accused of being pro-communist, was on record today with a bitter denunciation of communism.

The Democratic senator declared in Tampa, Fla.: "I hate communism. I think it is a disgusting philosophy. Communists believe they will succeed only when capitalism fails, which is the reason we must keep capitalism strong."

Pepper, visiting Tampa to address a meeting of Florida labor unions which have urged that he seek the vice-presidential nomination, clarified his recent stand favoring aid to Russia by saying:

"I am not defending Russia. I am defending the lives of American people which would be snuffed out by another war."

"Another war would destroy the capitalistic system and I am not disposed to go to war because of something Russia is doing to a people who a short time ago were killing Americans."

Indictment In Pollution Case In Butler County

BUTLER, Pa., Sept. 6.—(INS)—District Attorney Clyde S. Shumaker of Butler county said today indictments were returned yesterday against the Sonneborn corporation and its officials on charges of pollution of streams.

One indictment was brought against Dr. F. Sonneborn of Baltimore; T. M. Murphy, plant manager, and Ike Ofner, plant superintendent. The second indictment was brought against the corporation.

The district attorney said trial of the defendants probably will be in December.

Shumaker said the charges against the three individuals were brought by C. A. French, a member of the Pennsylvania sanitary water board. Charges against the corporation were preferred by Lee C. McCandless, special prosecutor appointed by Gov. James H. Duff.

Testimony from approximately 50 witnesses was heard.

REV. G. H. WOODS TO BEGIN DUTIES HERE

I Am Thinking About

Earl R. Wimer

Much has been said in this campaign about Recreation and other worthy subjects but it seems to me there are many other important functions for Public Officials to be thinking of if New Castle is to be a progressive city.

We should be giving thought to the fact that large numbers of our citizens must travel to other cities for employment. We have efficient firemen but do they have modern equipment and sufficient water power to do a good job, we have good policemen but do they have the proper equipment and are they properly instructed, are we satisfied with the moral condition of our city, are we satisfied with the condition of our streets, traffic conditions, parking facilities, garbage service, and are we satisfied with our present bus service? Are we all satisfied that the city should erect new buildings (not emergency) when the building dollar of today is worth but THIRTY SEVEN CENTS?

I am told there are about 2500 men living in this city who must travel back and forth daily to Youngstown and other cities to make their livelihood. This many workmen, using an average of four to a family, could represent 10,000 persons. They live in New Castle now because they cannot find homes in these other cities. Can you, Mr. and Mrs. New Castle, visualize what could happen to the population figures in New Castle when the housing shortage is over if these men cannot find employment in New Castle? Can you Mr. Business Man realize what this can mean to you? This is not a pleasant thought but it is one that should receive the undivided attention of all city officials.

Dr. W. E. Flannery Will Speak Sunday

Dr. Wilbur E. Flannery will speak Sunday morning, September 7, at 10 o'clock in the Wesley Methodist church. Dr. Flannery formerly served as minister of the Wesley congregation.

Rev. Paul E. Aley, pastor of the church, is now attending the year's meetings of the Erie Conference at Allegheny college, Meadville.

Out-Of-Town Groups Will Attend First Laymen's Crusade

Plan Large Male Voiced Choir To Sing During Series, September 14 To 21

A number of delegations from out of town, including, Meadville, Beaver Falls, Ellwood City and Youngstown, will be in attendance at the Christian Laymen's Crusade which will open Sunday, September 14, in the First Methodist church, North Jefferson at North streets. It was announced today.

The crusade, the first of its kind ever to be attempted in New Castle, is entirely directed by Christian laymen from all walks of life. Each speaker that has been invited to appear on the program, comes to the city at his own expense. James E. Colville, president of the Christian Laymen's Crusade of New York City will be director of the Crusade and will be soloist during the eight day series.

During the weekdays, with the exception of Saturday, a Bible study period will be conducted each afternoon by H. E. Eavey, wholesale grocer of Xenia, Ohio, at 3 p. m. Plans are under way for a large male choir to sing during the series.

Speakers for the crusade include: Reamer G. Loomis, Chicago; Waldo Yeager, Toledo; Russell T. Howe, Cincinnati; H. E. Eavey, Xenia, Ohio; Blair A. Quick, Moline, Ill.; Paul B. Fisher, Chicago, and Leon H. Sullivan, Philadelphia.

To discuss final plans for the crusade, a meeting of the committee, and the New Castle C.B.M.C. members is called for next Tuesday evening, September 9.

TRANSPORTATION TO CONVENTION

Transportation is being provided for delegates from Lawrence county to attend the 85th annual convention of the Pennsylvania State Sabbath School Association, to be held at Scranton, Pa., October 7 to 10.

C. J. Kenahan of the Croton Methodist Sunday school has been appointed a delegate and he will be able to take five other delegates with him on the "share the expense" plan. There are two other automobiles that will be going, so at the present time transportation has been provided for 15 delegates. At least three other automobiles will be needed. Any delegate who is driving and can accommodate others, call County Sunday school headquarters, L. S. & T. Building.

Methodist Pastors Are At Conference

Most Methodist churches of New Castle will have no church services on Sunday, save the usual Sunday school service. The sermon hour will be dispensed with due to the ministers being at the annual Erie conference in Meadville.

Place Duffle Bags At Ellwood City

Frank Wiley, president of Ellwood district of the Lawrence County Sabbath School Association, states that the ten duffle bags for his district have been received and that he will have all placed within the very near future. Harold Burns, the county adult superintendent, also has the nine duffle bags from the Ellwood district taken care of. Three filled duffle bags were forwarded from New Castle district during the past week. The last duffle bag to be sent in to the Service Center in Maryland for cleaning, renovation and repair, weighed 37 1/2 pounds and the parcels post charge was 86 cents. This was one of the heaviest bags sent in to date.

At the present time 5 of the 8 districts in the county have duffle bags, and Ellwood district will get started with their annual convention tomorrow. This just leaves Mt. Jackson district and Slippery Rock district, and if they do not receive their duffle bags before, they will at their annual conventions this fall.

Alliance Church To Observe Rally Day

Missionary To Colombia, South America, Will Speak At Pearson Street Church Sunday

With the summer vacation period concluded a special rally service will be featured Sunday morning during the Bible school hour of the Alliance Gospel Tabernacle, 210 Pearson street, and opening at 9:30 o'clock.

A special speaker, Mrs. Carl Hughes, missionary to Colombia, South America, will address the Senior Department of the school at which time she will tell of her work in South America. The Junior Department will have the privilege of hearing, Miss Edith Imhoff, missionary to India. Miss Imhoff is a veteran missionary to her field, while Mrs. Hughes has just completed one term in South America.

The Colombian missionary will be heard during the morning worship period of the church at 10:45 o'clock, it is announced by the pastor, Rev. J. H. Boon. Mrs. Hughes serves on the same field, with Rev. and Mrs. Frederick A. Smith, of this city, and representatives of the Pearson street church.

Plans are under way by the church for the annual missionary convention which will be held the first week in October. Missionaries from several Alliance fields, with a Bible teacher will be on the program.

Auxiliary Bishop

NATIONAL Director of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, the most Rev. Thomas J. McDonnell (above), D.D., will be consecrated as Roman Catholic Auxiliary Bishop of New York by Francis Cardinal Spellman, Archbishop of New York, on Sept. 15. The ceremony is scheduled to take place in St. Patrick's Cathedral. (International)

Youth For Christ Ensemble To Sing At Ellwood Tonight

Taking advantage of an open evening, due to no Youth for Christ service in New Castle, this evening, New Castle Youth for Christ's talented ladies ensemble will motor to Ellwood City this evening, to sing at the Youth for Christ service there in the First Methodist church. The group will be under the direction of their leader, Miss Mary Aiken.

The regular weekly meetings of the local youth group will be resumed next Saturday evening, when a rally will be held in connection with the laymen's crusade which will open in the city. The speaker will be Reamer G. Loomis, rector of Chicago, Illinois. Soloist will be James E. Colville of New York City. No service will be held at the First Methodist church this evening.

St. Paul's Church Progresses Greatly

St. Paul's Lutheran church, Jefferson at Grant, is preparing to complete a most blessed and successful year in 1948.

In November the $13,500 mortgage on church property shall be burned. Five hundred dollars still remains to be paid on the mortgage by November. Many new members have been received since the first of the year. The apportionment to Synod has been paid to date. Extensive repairs have been made on church property during the year, and others are still to be made.

Sunday morning, September 7, at 10:45 o'clock the pastor, Rev. O. J. Warnath, S. T. M., will return to his pulpit after a brief vacation. Rev. Warnath has chosen "Where Are The Nine?" as his theme for that service.

Rev. J. L. McFarland To Speak At St. Luke's

A special service will be held at 3 p. m., Sunday at St. Luke's A. M. E. Zion church, 119 Elm street; Rev. K. L. Buford, pastor.

Rev. J. L. McFarland, pastor of the Second Baptist church, this city, will preach the sermon. The choir and members of the Second Baptist congregation will accompany Rev. McFarland.

The service is being sponsored by Mrs. Blanche Dillard.

Rev. Buford has announced that there will be no evening service. The pastor will leave the city after the 3 p. m. service to go to Salem, O., where he will be engaged in evangelistic services during the week.

Rev. Sartell Will Return To Pulpit

Following a month's leave of absence, Rev. Howard V. Sartell, pastor of the Calvary Gospel Tabernacle, Vogan street, will return to his pulpit on Sunday morning, speaking at the 11 o'clock worship hour.

Rev. and Mrs. Sartell and daughter, spent a week of their vacation period at Uniondale, Pa., with Rev. Sartell's parents, and then traveled on to New Jersey, to attend the Harvey Cedar Bible Conference. The couple visited other places of interest during the journey.

Rev. Sartell will also be heard during the Sunday evening service.

First Fall Meeting Of Ministers Monday

Dr. H. C. Chambers, Missionary To India, Will Be First Speaker Of Year

Following the usual summer recess, when no meetings were held, members of the New Castle Ministerial Association will hold their first fall meeting, Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, in the First Presbyterian church, North Jefferson at Falls street.

The first speaker of the year will be Dr. H. C. Chambers, returned missionary from India, who will speak on the topic, "Missionary Outlook in India Today". Dr. J. Paul Graham will be in charge of the devotions.

The new officers that were elected last spring will be in charge of the service. Rev. James N. Rainey, president will preside, with Rev. R. B. Withers, beginning his 14th year of service as secretary.

THE WORLD AND THE MUD PUDDLES

Reconstruction Finance Corporation on the order of the White House.

This action was taken on the recommendation of a son of the President of the United States.

This son was the subject of extravagant entertainment on the part of a contractor. On his own statement he was the recipient of gifts and loans from the contractor.

The cancellation of the contracts was stopped by order of the President of the United States.

The United States, after many years, has nothing whatever to show for the outlay of forty million dollars.

What "smear" is involved in the bringing to public attention these proven—and confessed—facts?

What immunity is any public official, high or low, entitled to in any case of waste or misdirection of public funds?

The conduct of members of the family of the President of the United States should be, like that of Caesar's wife, "above reproach". To fall back on the cry of "smear" is not only childish, but out of keeping with American ideas of sportsmanship.

Question Man In McKeesport Murder

McKEESPORT, Pa., Sept. 6.—(INS)—Detectives today continued questioning of Thomas M. Davis for information concerning his whereabouts when Julia Ann Fesko, 22, was murdered near McKeesport before Labor Day.

Police also tried to discover other men with whom the slain factory worker had had dates.

Authorities said that Davis, 25, had not been charged with the killing but was being held for questioning. The results of the interview were not disclosed, but it was learned that Davis and his wife argued about his association with Miss Fesko.

Missing Premier Is Being Sought

FRANKFURT, Sept. 6.—(INS)—American, Russian and British troops searched their respective zones today for missing Premier Rudolf Paul of the Soviet-occupied province of Thuringia.

Dr. Paul disappeared Monday, with his wife and four other persons. It was commonly known that the Soviet-appointed premier had incurred the displeasure of both the Russians and German communists.

Speculation was expressed in informed quarters that he may be attempting to slip into the American zone.

ASTRONOMERS GATHER

WILLIAMS BAY, Wis., Sept. 6.—(INS)—More than 100 of the nation's leading astronomers gathered at Williams Bay, Wis., today to celebrate the 50th anniversary of the University of Chicago's Yerkes Observatory and the American Astronomical society.

Williams Bay is the founding site of both the observatory and the society.

Swing Lobby — Mr. Wimer

In your recent political advertisement concerning SWING LOBBY you displayed a disturbing lack of knowledge of the subject. The undersigned members of the Mayor's Recreation Committee have been responsible for this project since its inception and offer the following comments.

1. You like the idea of Swing Lobby.
2. You imply its location is improper.
3. You imply that the City Building is a fire trap.
4. You imply Swing Lobby is poorly supervised.
5. Lighting.
6. You imply that all ages mix indiscriminately.
7. You state that the young people should be taught to return home promptly.
8. You imply that Swing Lobby has interfered with school work.
9. $7,000.00 CASH SURPLUS.
1. So do we.
2. It is located centrally and does not favor the "North Hill" or "South Side" or any other section of the city.
3. Competent local and state inspectors have approved the building for public purposes.
4. The overwhelming majority of the young people, their parents, civic leaders, and city officials have remarked on the splendid behavior at Swing Lobby.
5. Obviously this is a question of individual taste.
6. Each night is reserved for a definite age group.
7. Mr. Wimer, will you volunteer to lead a class on this subject at Swing Lobby?
8. To some extent perhaps. But, surely, Mr. Wimer, you must know that police records in New Castle show that juvenile delinquency dropped almost to nothing since Swing Lobby started, while the average juvenile delinquency in the country is increasing alarmingly.
9. Swing Lobby is run by the youngsters themselves. They charge a 10c admission fee and sell soft drinks at a small profit. They pay all operating expenses and are proud of their $7,000.00 surplus. This, they hope, will become the foundation of a new "Youth Center" in New Castle.

Finally, Mr. Wimer, this is not intended as a political advertisement. The Mayor's Recreation Committee is not a political body. We are just ordinary citizens of New Castle who like the idea of helping our young people and who don't like to be criticized unfairly.

near the mine shafts so that shifts going on or off duty could take shelter there. The mines themselves are so deep that they were safe except when a hit on the surface destroyed the machines providing air and light to the men below ground. The bunkers are massive concrete structures built half underground, without windows.

2 Rooms Per Family
Crude partitions have now been thrown up, and two rooms are assigned to each family. An electric bulb hanging from the center of each room partly dispels the gloom. I visited with one family consisting of father, mother, five children and grandmother. The youngest child, a two-year-old boy, played in the corner half-naked. The miner was trying to sleep in one of a row of beds in the bedroom. In another bed, an older child was sick.

During the war, temporary barracks and their families who were bombed out. I talked with one family consisting of father, mother and 11 children. They had lived since 1943 in the two rooms allocated to them in the barracks. When their home had been bombed, they were moved to a school, and when that was damaged beyond repair, they were assigned to the barracks.

When I visited them, a young girl was on her hands and knees, scrubbing the rough tile floor—a seemingly futile process in view of the dust blowing in through the open windows. The only object not strictly of utility in the two rooms was a crucifix on the wall.

Result of 29 Years

The mother answered questions tersely. Finally, a kind of anger came into her face and with a gesture at the beds crowded close together, she said: "Yes, this! My man has worked in the mines 29 years, and this is all we have." She seemed not to connect what had happened to her in any way with the war and its prelude of Nazism. Observers report that, for the most part, the Germans simply do not make the connection. Propaganda by local Communists seeks to put the blame for present conditions on the democracies.

In the atmosphere of the Ruhr, it is hard to see how private enterprise in anything like the American sense can be restored. The British say what the desire among the German workers for socialization of the mines is strong. Communist slogans are splashed on walls that stand up out of the ruins. Eighty-five per cent of all prewar coal output was held by a tight cartel. Yet private enterprise is the "earnest goal of U. S. policy in Germany." Girl Confesses Killing Father Last December

LACONIA, N. H., Sept. 6.—(INS)—The mysterious disappearance of a merchant seaman last December was explained today with the announcement by police that his pretty 20-year-old daughter had killed him because she feared that he would harm her.

Police said the tragedy involving Sylvester Roberts, 52, and his daughter, Barbara, 20, came to light when her two brothers returned home from the sea early this week determined to clear up the mystery surrounding their father's strange absence.

Barbara's alleged confession that she killed her father with a shotgun and buried his body under loose boards in the sheep pen of their farm home at Gilmanton Iron Works, came after two days of intensive questioning by the brothers, also Merchant Marine men.

Tells Story Of Tragedy
Then, in the presence of County Solicitor William Keller, the attractive girl, who only recently left home for a job as a woolen mill worker, broke down and told the full story of the tragic events which preceded the yuletide tragedy eight months ago.

Officials quoted her as saying that her father had abused her in the past, and that when she failed to meet him with the family car at the railroad station he started an argument which lasted three hours. She said she could not meet him with the car because it was being repaired.

As the climax, the confession continued, she grabbed a shotgun when her father started toward her. Other relatives were absent, so she waited until dark and dragged his body to the sheep pen, where authorities found it lying under the loose boards.

ROBBED OF $5,000
KANE, Pa., Sept. 6.—(INS)—State police today sought a lone bandit who last night robbed Simon Carlson, 59, a recluse living near Mt. Jewett, of $5,000 as he walked from his home to work in a nearby factory.

The money was in pockets pinned inside Carlson's clothing.

Franco Spain To Be Problem

Will Be One Of Major Issues At General Assembly Of United Nations

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Sept. 6.—(INS)—One of the major problems of the United Nations general assembly when it convenes September 16 is that of Franco Spain but indications today are that any action stronger than "shadow-boxing" will be blocked.

The United States and Britain, along with a number of smaller countries, are ready to continue surface endorsement of the anti-Franco campaign but without joining any measures apt to call for "intervention in the questions of self-rule of the Spanish people."

The 1946 assembly's resolution barring Franco Spain from U. N. membership and suspending diplomatic relations—observed with all members except the Argentine—is considered at Lake Success to be the maximum action the majority of nations will support.

Observers point out that the political tension between east and west in the United Nations in a sense has benefited Franco, as is expected to become evident during the coming assembly. The Soviet cry of "Fascist" will fall on ears far dearer than at the 1946 session. A forerunner of the milder alarm on Franco among the majority of nations is the practical by-passing of the issue by the security council in its report to the general assembly. There is no recommendation or effort in the annual report urging the 55-nation body to strengthen its own resolution.

A virtual certainty, on the other hand, is the championing by the Argentine of Franco Spain. The Argentine alone defied the U. N. assembly resolution of 1946 by sending an ambassador to Madrid after the anti-Franco measure was adopted.

Hint British May Ask Loan On Easy Terms

LONDON, Sept. 6.—(INS)—A political writer for the London Daily Express reported today that the Labor government may ask for a loan on easy terms from the international monetary fund.

The report declared that the Attlee cabinet had decided to ask the fund's governors, who meet in London next week, to alter its rules and enable nations with prolonged financial difficulties to secure credit on easier terms.

If such adjustments are made, Chancellor of the Exchequer Hugh Dalton will apply for a new loan to reduce a number of the nation's austerity measures and tide Britain over until Marshall plan aid becomes available, the Daily Express said.

Deny Rumored Boost In Jap Yen. Exchange

TOKYO, Sept. 6.—(INS)—General MacArthur's headquarters today branded as "pure speculation" Japanese press reports that the yen exchange rate will be set at about 140 to 1 United States dollar in the late fall or early winter.

The current rate is 50 to one. Sources at MacArthur's headquarters said that the current private trade program, inaugurated August 14, will go a long way toward establishing the real value of the yen by determining what foreign traders are willing to pay for Japanese commodities.

The observation was made that Washington will make the final decision on the yen after foreign trade gains momentum.

Indianapolis Police Capture Two Gunmen

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 6.—(INS)—Held by Indianapolis police today were two men captured following a running gunfight through downtown streets last night in which a taxi driver was wounded.

Police said the men held up a taxi and escaped with $250.

They were identified as Richard C. Hoffman, alias Logan, 23, of Buffalo, N. Y., and William N. Larkin, alias King, 25, of Davenport, Iowa.

Check Alibi Of Slaying Suspect

OMAHA, Sept. 6.—(INS)—Chief Deputy Sheriff Hugh Cutler said today that "several discrepancies" are being checked in the alibi of a 21-year-old former sailor held by Denver police for questioning in connection with the murders of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. May II.

Cutler added that the suspect's palm and fingerprints, forwarded by Denver police, are being compared with prints left in the car of the slain Alexandria, Va., couple.

Wife Of Former Football Star Gets Divorce

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 6.—(INS)—The wife of Jesse B. "Duke" Morrison, star fullback on the University of California's wonder team of the 1920's, held a divorce today as the result of wartime letters written by a young Englishwoman.

A San Francisco court granted the decree to Mrs. Barbara Morrison after her attorney introduced a number of love letters that he said were written by a London woman named M. C. Holland.

The attorney said Morrison received the letters while abroad and sent some of them home to his wife with the advice to "use these and get a divorce."

Most of the letters were signed "Cela" and all began "Darling Duke." The phrase "I do miss you" occurred in all the letters and "darlings" were scattered liberally on the pages.

MARINE COMMANDER
SEES STRONG FORCE
BULWARK OF PEACE

CLEVELAND, Sept. 6.—(INS)—The U. S. Marine Corps commander, Gen. Alexander A. Vandegrift, today named the maintenance of larger armed forces as the first immediate requirement for peace.

Gen. Vandegrift included the recommendation in a four-point program outlined before the 48th encampment in Cleveland of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

The other three suggestions made by the Marine Corps head included "strong reserves, strongly supported in their home communities; an industrial plant that walks hand in hand with military research and development, and stockpiles of those necessary materials which were too little and too late until World War II was almost lost."

POLICE SEEKING HIT-SKIP DRIVER
NEAR CARLISLE, PA.

CARLISLE, Pa., Sept. 6.—(INS)—State police today searched highways and side roads in the vicinity of Carlisle for the driver of a hit-run automobile which last night struck and seriously injured Mrs. Daisy Brown, 62, of Shermansdale.

Police said Mrs. Brown was admitted to Carlisle hospital with fractures of the right shoulder and right hand and possible internal injuries. The woman was struck while walking along a highway, they added.

Suggests Changes In Nation's Taxes

SWAMPSCOTT, Mass., Sept. 6.—(INS)—Albert Bradley, executive vice president of General Motors, asked today a general revision of the nation's tax plans to permit the use of venture capital for the formation and growth of small businesses.

Bradley told the National Association of Life Underwriters: "We have stepped up our tax rates to the point where they threaten pretty effectively to smother risk enterprise."

Suggests Changes

Bradley suggested four changes in the tax laws:

1. The tax law with respect to the carrying forward or back of losses should be liberalized so that business can more nearly balance its prosperous years against its lean ones.

2. Liberalization of depreciation allowances, particularly for the business that is just getting started, and has most of its capital tied up in new facilities and tools.

3. End double taxation of corporation income.

4. Corporation taxes should be reduced to make investment more attractive and aid enterprise in financing itself.

British Create, Inhibit Cancer Growths, Report

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 6.—(INS)—British scientists were credited Friday with the discovery of a means of creating and inhibiting cancerous growths.

The disclosure was made in a technical paper delivered by Dr. Alexander Haddow and his colleagues of the Royal Cancer Hospital in London, England, at the Fourth International Cancer Research Congress in St. Louis.

Dr. Haddow's report was explained yesterday by one of his co-workers, Dr. L. A. Elson.

Dr. Elson declared the British scientists achieved their objective even though they had to do most of their work during the Nazi blitzkrieg.

They discovered that a whole family of chemicals, created in their laboratory test tubes, were related in some way to cancerous growths.

Some of these chemicals caused cancer in the rats on which they experimented. Others, notably one called 4-aminostilbene, inhibited such growths.

Another chemical dibenzanthracene, inhibited cancer only under a certain set of circumstances—chiefly, when the animal is fed a low-protein diet.

This was the first generally known scientific indication of a connection between the food the animal eats and its susceptibility to cancer.

A. K. Hemer's Mother Dies At Pittsburgh

Mrs. Florence S. Hemer, wife of A. A. Hemer, 501 Fifth avenue, New Kensington, Pa., died this morning, according to a message received here by friends and relatives. Death occurred at 8:40 o'clock in the Mercy hospital, Pittsburgh, after an illness of several months.

Among the survivors are her husband and a son, A. Kenneth Hemer, 424 Laurel boulevard, New Castle. Her son is the manager of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company of this city.

Private funeral services will be conducted Tuesday morning from the A. A. Hemer funeral home, 501 Fifth avenue, New Kensington. Friends will be received this evening as well as Sunday and Monday evenings at the funeral home.

Editor And Author Summoned By Death

TARRYTOWN, N. Y., Sept. 6.—(INS)—Herbert Kaufman, 89, editor and author, died today of a heart attack at his estate, Whitehall, in Tarrytown.

Kaufman's special articles and editorials were featured for years on the editorial pages of the New York American, now the New York Journal-American.

YMCA Summer Season Closes

Central branch of the Y. M. C. A. closed out their summer program today and looked back upon one of the busiest periods in the history of the two branches in the city.

A record number of boys enjoyed a diversified program which saw as its highlight the five-week camping sessions along the Slippery Rock.

Today ends the summer movie schedule, although more motion pictures, of the aerial type, are planned for the winter months. Starting in October the regular gym periods will commence.

Asks Discussion On Pension Plan

DETROIT, Sept. 6.—(INS)—The UAW-CIO today asked the General Motors corporation to renew discussions on social security and old-age pension plan for the 250,000 GM production workers.

Union President Walter P. Reuther, in a letter to GM Vice President Harry W. Anderson, suggested that a joint committee be formed to gather statistics.

The union leader's letter said that $28 per month average pension provided by federal social security to workers over 65 in the Detroit area is pitifully inadequate.

Would Parachute Jews To Palestine

PARIS, Sept. 6.—(INS)—Rabbi Baruch Korff of New York declared today that he has asked the French government for permission to establish an operations base in France for parachuting Jews into Palestine.

In a news conference in Paris, the rabbi, who has been under attack by various Jewish organizations, also asked that the Stern gang be permitted to set up headquarters in the French capital.

Rabbi Korff predicted that "London will be less safe to live in than Jerusalem."

THOSE TERMINAL LEAVE BONDS

MAKE A NEAT LITTLE NEST EGG

We would like to talk about the advantages of motor truck transportation today but we won't. What we will talk about is those terminal leave bonds that G. I. Joe can cash just now if he wants to.

Don't do it, Joe! They'll make a nice little nest egg if you leave them alone. Sure, the dough looks mighty good just now, but do you really need it?

If it's a necessity of course you'll cash them. But think twice before you do. Money spent today on useless things won't do you a bit of good a few years from now. And you may need it then.

There's nothing gives you a feeling of confidence like a little collateral stashed away.

DEPARTING BIBLE

STUDENT HONORED

Miss Evelyn Masters of 1516 Thorpe street, who leaves Tuesday evening to take up her studies at the Missionary Training Institute, Nyack, N. Y., has been honored recently by a series of showers by her church friends and other associates.

On Friday evening the sewing group of the Gospel Mission, South Croton avenue, assembled in the mission to honor Miss Masters. The evening was spent informally, with piano music presented by Mrs. Harold Boughter. The guests were seated at a long table appropriately decorated, where refreshments were served by the co-hostesses, Miss Mabel Weimer and Miss Sara Greer.

The honoree received many nice gifts, which were all made by the sewing group during the year. Members of the Sally Boham Bible class and Ruth Gustafson class of the Gospel Tabernacle, 210 Pearson street, met in the home of Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Boon, 206 South Crawford avenue, Thursday evening in honor of Miss Masters also. The large group spent the evening socially, with games occupying the time.

The tables at which the guests were seated were graced by seasonal flowers and candles. The hostess, Miss Josephine Jenkins, aided by members of the group, served delicious refreshments.

Many personal gifts were received by the departing Bible student.

For the past year and a half Miss Masters has been employed at the Shenango Pottery, having entered there upon her graduation from New Castle High in January of 1946. She plans to study for gospel service either in the homeland or abroad.

RECEPTION GIVEN

ON ANNIVERSARY

Twenty-fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Carl G. Holmes was celebrated on the evening of September 2 when the friends of Mrs. Jack Harter, and Mrs. Holmes' sister, Mrs. R. E. Matthews were hostesses to a group of 30 guests at the Holmes' home, 605 McCleary avenue.

Duet music by Robert Matthews and Walter Shuler was a feature of the evening's entertainment. There were also games and group singing for diversion.

In serving refreshments the hostesses were aided by another sister of Mrs. Holmes, Mrs. Norman McCracken of Warren, O., and by Mrs. Robert Matthews.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman McCracken and their children Amelia Mae and Norman of Warren, O., attended from out of town.

VOLANT MOTHERS

HAVE GATHERING

Volant Mothers' club assembled Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Lois Stouffer of the Perry highway, where a Wiener roast was enjoyed.

Due to the inclement weather, the group had to move indoors. Places were arranged for 56, with families sharing as special guests. Mr. and Mrs. G. Gunther and family were also guests.

Contests and games were played later in the evening.

Plans have been made for a masquerade Halloween party Friday evening, Oct. 3, at the home of Mrs. William Holzhauser, of Volant.

Smuggled To U. S.

French Girl Will

Return To Europe

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—(INS)—A petite blonde French girl who claims she was smuggled into the United States by an American seaman apparently is on her way back to France today.

The girl, Suzanne Marie Revel, 20, told French embassy officials that she was a factory worker in Port De Larche, Normandy, until she was smuggled aboard an American freighter by a crew member known to her as "Joe".

She said "Joe" promised to marry her and explained that he would take her to America to meet his mother before the marriage. So, Suzanne reports, "Joe" slipped her into the hold of his ship one night.

According to the French girl, the freighter arrived in New York on Aug. 19 and she and her husband-to-be were slipped by immigration officials and went to a hotel.

Suzanne soon began asking her fiancé to take her to his mother. But Joe never did. Instead, he offered to take her on a trip and they boarded a train for Washington.

During the trip Joe disappeared and Suzanne arrived in Washington's Union station Thursday all alone, without a passport and unable to speak English.

Travelers Aid workers found her wandering about the huge station and turned her over to immigration officials. She is being held for further questioning pending shipment to Ellis Island.

FORMER MAYOR MAYNE RECOMMENDS HAVEN

To My Friends:

Four years ago, I recommended that you should nominate and elect John Haven to be Mayor of the City of New Castle. No one has ever told me that was bad advice, or that that recommendation was a mistake.

At that time I was quitting the office of Mayor, after having served my City for two terms in that capacity, because I felt honestly that the position required a younger man than I. I knew that the City was then in good shape and well administered; I was aware of the difficulties which lay ahead and which could not be met by untired or irresponsible men; and I was concerned lest the voters might be beguiled into choosing a man to act as chief executive of this City, about whose qualifications they knew very little.

I knew that John Haven had certain qualifications which very definitely suited him to be Mayor of this City, and I told you very candidly and frankly what I knew. You accepted my advice in the spirit in which it was given and his record as Mayor for the past four years has entirely justified my confidence in him and your action at that time.

Mr. Haven has made good. He has been able to create in the City Council a spirit of harmony and co-operation, which results in careful and considerate action by that body, in your interest, without any rancor or hatred. He has been able to work with Council in obtaining the good will and cooperation of the Departments in Harrisburg, the School Board, the several other municipalities in the County, and all of the organizations of citizens, which have for their object, the betterment of people and groups of people in the City. The progress made has been made without increasing the tax burden on home owners or others.

Mayor Haven has seemed to me to aim to establish a policy here, that wherever any group of citizens, be they religious, social, business, labor, or even political, comes to the City with any request or problem, that group shall have a full and fair hearing, not only by the Mayor and Council, but wherever else it should be heard.

This cooperation did not just happen. It came about because your City Administration was intelligently and harmoniously trying to do the things and provide the services you want. And in that Administration, John Haven has been a real leader. I am proud to have recommended him and have full confidence now in recommending him to you again.

Respectfully yours,

CHARLES B. MAYNE.

Jewish Veterans To Have Memorial

Memorial Salute, Ceremonies At
Tifereth Israel Cemetery
Sunday At 11 A. M.

The Lawrence County Post of the Jewish War Veterans will conduct a memorial salute and grave-decorating ceremony at the Tifereth Israel cemetery on Sunday morning, September 7, at 11:00 o'clock.

This salute will be conducted in connection with the forthcoming high holy days, at which time those of the Jewish faith honor their departed in the traditional manner. The Jewish War Veterans will so honor their deceased comrades.

Rabbi H. Krash, of Tifereth Israel congregation will chant the prayers, and Dr. I. J. Gruen of Temple Israel will also participate in the services.

Morris Becker, officer of the day, will be in charge of the firing squad and will supervise the grave-decorating ritual. Becker will be assisted by Ed. Schlossberg and Alvin Kulken. Gerald Banks will sound taps.

Commander Morton Love has invited the officers and members of all veterans' posts to attend as well as friends and the families of the Jewish war vets.

Regular meeting of the Lions club will be held Tuesday noon at The Castleton hotel. The sound motion picture film, "It Can't Happen Here" will be shown. The film deals with the anti-communist movement.

The meeting will open the fall attendance campaign, when it is expected to have 100 per cent attendance at the meetings.

India Rioting Cuts Vacation Of Mountbatten

NEW DELHI, Sept. 6.—(INS)—Communal rioting in India's main cities, particularly in the Punjab, was cited today as the reason governor-general Viscount Mountbatten terminated his vacation at Simla so abruptly.

The viscount hastened back from the mountain resort to keep in close touch with his ministers. Tens of thousands of persons already are listed as victims of rioting among the Moslems, Hindus and Sikhs. But the death list mounts daily.

In new and old Delhi yesterday alone, fresh incidents claimed the lives of 100 persons. Another 200 were reported slain at the Holy Sikh city of Amritsar, in the Punjab.

COULD LIVE YEAR ON ATOM BOMB SITE MINUS ILL EFFECTS

CHICAGO, Sept. 6.—(INS)—Two Notre Dame University faculty members stated today that humans could live on Bikini atoll, site of the 1946 atomic bomb tests, for a year without suffering ill effects from the presence of radioactivity.

The two chemistry professors, Dr. William H. Hamill and Dr. Russell R. Williams, Jr., recently returned to the university after serving as special Navy consultants in atomic research on the island.

Polio Strikes Two In Reedsville Family

HARRISBURG, Sept. 6.—(INS)—Joan Simonetti, four, of Reedsville, R. D., and her two-year-old brother, Donald, were confined today in the Harrisburg hospital's communicable disease annex for treatment of infantile paralysis.

The victims, the children of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Simonetti, were taken to Harrisburg in a Lewisburg hospital ambulance. Their conditions were reported satisfactory.

More than 90 per cent of domestic packaged shipments are made in some type of fiber containers.

GRANGE NEWS

Report Fighting In Yugoslavia

ATHENS, Sept. 6.—(INS)—Greek frontier dispatches reported today heavy fighting in southern Yugoslavia between Marshal Tito's Communist regulars and a Yugoslav guerrilla organization known as the "Crusaders."

These reports, not confirmed by other sources, said "many" Yugoslav soldiers have deserted to the guerrillas and that the fighting in the last two days has assumed "considerable dimensions."

From dawn today the dispatches said the battles raged in the sector between Valandovo to Devdelija and from Bogdan to Dohran, near the Bulgarian frontier.

Artillery and planes are being used, and thirty large explosions were observed yesterday inside the Yugoslav town of Devdelija, which is just across the Greek frontier in the area north of Salonika.

The Greek reports said that the explosions destroyed the Devdelija electric power plant. Rail lines in the same area were blown up in several places.

The Yugoslavs frequently have complained of anti-Tito bands striking in northern Yugoslavia along the Austrian frontier, but this is the first report of serious trouble inside southern Yugoslavia.

Ex-Canadian Wac Arrested

BALTIMORE, Sept. 6.—(INS)—Baltimore police today announced the arrest of Miss Constance Emily LeHoup, ex-Canadian WAC, on a Detroit, Mich., warrant charging armed robbery.

Police quoted Miss LeHoup as saying she would return to Detroit to face the charges. She is being held on $2,500 bail.

Detective Captain Henry K. Kriss, said the ex-WAC admitted being an associate of Mrs. Pearl Baker, British war bride held in Detroit on robbery charges.

A letter written by Miss LeHoup to a friend in Detroit led to her arrest in Baltimore.

The American Red Cross was founded in 1861.

SEES DIVORCE RATE CLIMBING

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—(INS)—Superior Court Judge John A. Sbarbaro of Cook county, Ill., declared today that if present trends continue one out of every two marriages in the nation will end in divorce.

The jurist stated:

"In Cook county, Ill., the location of the court over which I preside, one marriage in three is determined in this way.

Even worse, if the present trend continues, by 1965 one out of two marriages contracted in the United States will be doomed to failure—doomed before it begins.

"To be exact, sociologists predict that by 1965 not less than 51 per cent will end in divorce."

An acknowledged authority on the subject of marriage and divorce, Judge Sbarbaro came to New York for the publication of a new book which is to be released this week.

ROBINSON BROTHERS WEDDING AT HOME

The wedding of Miss Mary Ellen Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Robinson of 1009 West State street, and Elkins Brothers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brothers of 406 West Lincoln avenue, took place at the bride's home on Saturday, Aug. 30. Rev. J. L. McFarland officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a suit of brown wool crepe with accessories to match and a corsage of roses. Miss Eleanor Young, as maid of honor, wore a teal blue suit with black accessories and a corsage of Tailsman roses. Arthur Brothers served his brother-in-law as best man.

A reception at home followed the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Brothers left for Washington, D. C., where they will make their home and where he is in training to become a professional boxer.

Mrs. Robinson is a graduate of New Castle high school and the Ell. Rene Beauty school in Pittsburgh.

On the evening preceding the wedding Miss Eleanor Young and Miss Alice Gillespie entertained jointly at a shower and farewell party for the bride-elect and the prospective groom in Miss Young's home on West Grant street.

Building New Housing Units Here

ARCHITECTS' SKETCH OF NEW APARTMENTS

Rising on North Mercer street between Grant and Lincoln avenues is an answer, in part, to the need for housing in New Castle. Construction has been started by the Sussex Housing corporation of two, three-story apartment buildings which when completed will provide 12 apartments in each building, 3½ and 4½ rooms each in size.

With good weather and no unforeseen difficulties, it is hoped the new apartments will be ready for occupancy sometime in the early spring of 1948.

Fireproof Buildings

The apartment buildings will be as fireproof as human ingenuity can make them, it is announced. Constructed of brick, stone, steel, cement and glass they will be modern in construction with the conveniences modern architecture provides. Each kitchen will be furnished with a refrigerator, a stove, and kitchen cabinets. Utility services such as electricity, gas, water and heat will be included in the rental charged.

The Sussex Housing corporation is composed of Carl Anderson, Roy Snyder, George Perry and Howard Snyder. The general contract for the buildings is held by the Duntley company of New Castle, with Clapper and Mallory of Sharon, the architects.

Veterans will be given preference in renting for the first 30 days of occupancy, the owners say.

Wolves Auxiliary Contributes $40 To Henry Home Fund

Members of the Wolves Auxiliary, an unorganized group of women, have come through with $40 to add to the slowly rising amount of money needed to make extensive improvements to the Margaret L. Henry children's home, on Friendship street.

Committees are working hard to make the benefit ball game Wednesday evening between the city and county all-stars a success. Ralph Gardner and Joseph Dougherty are getting the players together for the game. Mrs. Charles Key of the Eagles Auxiliary is in charge of tickets.

Arrangements are also being completed for the city-wide paper drive which will be conducted to swell the improvement funds on October 18. The drive will be in charge of Fred Clark of the Pennsylvania Truckers association and Thomas G. Allen of the Boy Scouts.

DELAY SCHOOL OPENING

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 6.—(INS)—Delay in the erection of three temporary buildings has caused the postponement of the fall semester at Duquesne university from September 22 to October 6, school officials reported in Pittsburgh today.

Twelve Injured In Gasoline Tank Blast At Anita

PUNXSUTAWNEY, Pa., Sept. 6.—(INS)—State police today reported 12 men were injured, several of them seriously, when a gasoline tank on a burning power shovel exploded at a strip mining operation in nearby Anita.

A short circuit on the shovel was believed to have started the fire, police reported.

As men tried to douse the blaze with chemical extinguishers, the gasoline-oil fuel in the machine tank exploded, filling the pit with smoke and flames.

Early reports said that some of the men were 200 feet from the machine, but the explosion burned their clothes.

Emergency crews from hospitals rushed to the scene. Medical supplies were hurried by state police from Pittsburgh, and plasma was brought from DuBois hospital. Anti-septic serum was brought from Indiana hospital.

Hospital attendants did not reveal the identity of the victims and the extent of the injuries.

BLAME DEATH ON ALCOHOL
CHICAGO, Sept. 6.—(INS)—Acute alcoholic poisoning was blamed today for the death of Mrs. Celeste Sell, 39, who was found nude, bruised and unconscious in her Chicago apartment last month.

Coroner A. L. Brodie announced the finding by a coroner's pathologist.

It was first believed the woman had been beaten to death.

YOUR VOTE WILL DECIDE WHO WILL BE TREASURER

Your vote on Tuesday, along with the votes of your neighbors and friends will decide who will be the Republican nominee for county treasurer. I ask your vote.

I ask it with the understanding that if nominated and elected I will be responsible only to the people of Lawrence County. I have made no political promises, no commitments, no back deals. If nominated and elected I can take the oath honestly that I "have not given or promised money or valuable things to secure that nomination and election."

What do I offer as a candidate? Experience in accountancy, service in World War One and Two, a lifelong residence in this county and a determination to run the office honestly, competently and economically.

High Prices Cut Down Meat Sales

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 6.—(INS)—Considerable buyers' resistance to high meat prices has developed in Philadelphia.

A survey of 1500 Quaker City meat dealers disclosed that housewives are resisting the soaring prices by buying less poundage of quality cuts.

But, high prices or not, a spokesman for the meat dealers said housewives are "still buying that steak."

Insistence upon choice, easily prepared cuts of meat, he said, is

Judges Available All Election Day

Judges To Be In Court House Election Day For Possible Disputes

OTHER HAPPINGS ON COURT HOUSE HILL

Tuesday, September 9 will be a long court day in the Lawrence County court house. Judges W. Walter Brahan and John G. Lamoree will be available from seven a. m. to eight p. m., to settle any election disputes which might arise. Oftentimes voters are challenged, election officials are uncertain about their rights or the rights of a voter and a decision is necessary quickly. In order to hand down these decisions without denying a voter his rights, the court will be in session all day long. The two judges will not be in their chambers all the time. One will take the early shift, from seven a. m. until early afternoon and the other will be in his chambers until the polls are closed.

SENTENCE COURT
Three men who pleaded to driving while intoxicated were sentenced Friday morning by Judge G. Lamoree. The three were Eugene Ivan Barber, Victor Cooper, and Charles E. Prentice. All received the same sentence, the standard "133". This of course means 100 fine and costs, thirty days in jail, out in three of the fine and costs are paid.

MARRIAGE LICENSE APPLICATIONS
Jerry J. Callahan, 742 Croton avenue, New Castle; Dorothy E. Dodge, R. D. 5, New Castle.
Samuel A. Calmano, R. D. 2, New Castle; Rita Zumbelli, 510 East Division street, New Castle.
Vincent Tullis, 458 Idora avenue, Youngstown, O.; Mildred Padula, 727 Pearl street, New Castle.

Traffic Accidents Higher In Rural Sections Of Nation

CHICAGO—More ammunition for their argument over the relative merits of city and country living has been provided city dwellers by the 1947 edition of "Accident Facts", the National Safety Council's statistical yearbook.
Of the 33,700 traffic accident fatalities during 1946, rural areas accounted for 21,200, while only 12,500 occurred in urban areas.
Part of the larger rural death total is the result of a larger total of miles driven. However, even the rural death rate based on mileage is larger than the urban rate—12.4 compared to 7.3 for 100,000,000 vehicle-miles.
Pedestrian deaths were greater in the cities, however, and were 61 per cent of the urban total. On the other hand, pedestrian deaths were only 20 per cent of the rural total, according to "Accident Facts".

MAINTAIN PRODUCTION WITH EGG PRICES HIGH

The most successful poultrymen concentrate on the better layers, helping them keep up their high rate of production, especially at times of rising egg prices. Late summer eggs usually are among the year's highest priced eggs, and large eggs command a much greater spread in price over smaller eggs when the supply dwindles than during the spring period of flush production. Fowls nearing the close of their laying year are still producing big eggs. This is a time for regular culling, sending the poor producers to market as meat.

Other factors in good management include provision of ample ventilation over the floor, and about the roosting hens at night to assure comfort. Eliminating lice and mites permits the hens to convert feed into eggs and meat rather than supporting parasites. Watching feed consumption and body weight helps the poultryman keep good layers in health and condition, while ample feeder space promotes greater feed consumption for greater egg output.

Pellets or wet mash, and sometimes both, may be used to stimulate appetites. Feeding at noon after the heavy lay of the day is over permits more time to get at the feeders. Some poultrymen make a practice of supplying one type of feed during the morning, another in the afternoon, or when convenient. Variety also stimulates feed consumption.
Artificial lights stimulate egg production. Usually late summer slumps can be averted or minimized by turning on the electric lights. Operating the lights to provide the equivalent of 12 hours of daylight usually is ample.

An Open Reply to Mrs. Carrie B. Griner

QUESTION 1—

Recreation has never been a function of County Commissioners in this Sixth Class County of Lawrence. It is NOT a fact that I ever refused to become a member of any recreation board. I was never asked to take part in this work and if you know your POLITICS you will understand why. When the recreation board attempted to buy a piece of property at Laurel and Wilmington there was another bidder and the price was bid up. When there is more than one bidder on a piece of Tax Sale property the Commissioners call in all bidders at a set time and sell to the highest bidder. All sales then go before the Court of Lawrence County for final approval. Do you doubt the efficiency of our Courts? Do you know that the money received from Tax Land Sales is distributed to the several taxing bodies, County, City of New Castle and School District on the basis of taxes delinquent on that property?

The County of Lawrence did this year, for the first time, assist with the recreation program. Baseball fields were graded, soil purchased for others, wire for back-stops was purchased and temporary seats furnished for many.

QUESTION 2—

SWIMMING POOLS. Mrs. Griner, do you or the perpetrator of your letter know that the money paid into the county as county taxes comes from 37 districts of the county, and that if the County Commissioners built a swimming pool in the City of New Castle they would be obligated to build 37 of them. Your County Tax Millage is now 4 1/2 mills. Where would this millage go to if the Commissioners built 37 swimming pools.

QUESTION 3—

It is NOT true that the county owns most of the vacant lots in the City of New Castle. There are not very many lots in the city that are TAX SALE LANDS. Do you know that the County is not the "OWNER" of any TAX SALE LANDS? The County is merely the TRUSTEE for all taxing bodies. The County Commissioners do all the work in connection with handling Tax Sale Lands but when they are sold by the Commissioners the money derived from such sales, by far the largest portion of it, is paid over to the City of New Castle and the School District of the City. Since the City and the School district receive the largest portion of money from the sales of Tax Lands, do you think the County with its little 4 1/2 mills tax should keep the weeds cut down? Will you ask the "GENERAL" to answer this question?

QUESTION 4—

Did the abutting property owners on Neal St. and Taylor St. pay CASH ON THE LINE for the paving of these streets? NO. Is it not a fact that we used to pave city streets when a MAJORITY of the abutting property owners signed the petition? Was it not a fact they were not even compelled to lay the CASH ON THE LINE, but the costs were filed as a lien against the property?

QUESTION 5—

It is true that the County had a large SURPLUS four years ago received from advertised delinquent taxes but I don't think I ever made such a statement that the County had "more money than the county knew what to do with." IF YOUR SPONSORS ARE FAMILIAR WITH MUNICIPAL FINANCING THEY SHOULD UNDERSTAND FROM MY ADVERTISEMENT, THURSDAY OF THIS WEEK, WHY THE COUNTY TAX MILLAGE WAS RAISED IN 1945.

QUESTION 6—

EQUALIZATION OF TAXES. Yes your county tax millage has been equalized, if that is what you mean. I refer you again to my Thursday advertisement showing why it fluctuated for a few years to the advantage of property owners.

QUESTION 7 AND 8—

Any person with any sense of reason could not believe the FANTASTIC figures you have mentioned. Those figures are a matter of Cost Distribution and will have to be checked.

It is true that considerable money was expended for new equipment and a change of system. This change over has just been completed and the year 1948 will be the first year for it to be in full operation. This change over, if properly supervised, will pay dividends to the property owners from now on.

Swimming pools can be built over a period of years without affecting the tax millage. We will show you, during the next four years, just how it will be done.

You close your article by inquiring what I have done for the City of New Castle. You evidently do not know that the County, in the last twelve months has expended and earmarked $53,500.00 for city improvements.

Did you not know that it is the County which is providing the money for the Mercer St. bridge? DID YOU NOT KNOW, Mrs. Griner, OR DID YOU NOT WANT TO KNOW, THAT THE BUSINESS OF THE COUNTY IS CONDUCTED BY A BOARD OF THREE MEMBERS?

DID YOU ADDRESS A COPY OF YOUR OPEN LETTER TO THE OTHER TWO MEMBERS?

I AM WONDERING IF YOU CONSIDERED IT GOOD BUSINESS FOR THE CITY TO BUILD A NEW CITY BUILDING WHEN THE COST OF NEW CONSTRUCTION IS THE HIGHEST IN THE HISTORY OF THE WORLD.

Atomic Energy Policy Decision Not Unanimous

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—(INS)—The atomic energy commission marked its first major policy controversy today by disclosing that the decision to export radio isotopes to foreign scientists was not unanimous.

The isotopes are radio-active by-products of America's atomic energy plants.

It was reported that Lewis L. Strauss, former admiral and ex-New York banker, was the lone member of the five-man atomic energy commission who voted against distribution of the isotopes to foreign countries.

Declines To Comment

Strauss, reached at his home in New York, firmly declined to comment on how he voted or to give his personal views on the issue of making the radio-active materials available in the world fight against disease.

He did not deny, however, that he had opposed the decision to export the isotopes.

Strauss said: "I prefer not to comment until there has been a meeting of the commission."

In Washington, Carroll L. Wilson, general manager of the commission, affirmed that the decision, announced earlier this week by President Truman as "an important forward step toward greater international cooperation," was not unanimous.

But the commission would not go beyond this point in discussing the first break in its unanimity on a major issue.

It's The Tune Not The Singing

AUBURN, Mass., Sept. 6.—(INS)—What Theodore Binder's singing lacks in quality, he makes up in volume.

His landlady asked Judge Alonzo Conant in municipal court for an eviction order. Mrs. Jennie Wells explained today she didn't mind his singing too much, but the particularly objected to his rendition of "The Old Gray Mare"—which he dedicated to her.

She added grimly, "never did like the song." Binder claimed Mrs. Wells taxed him 25 cents a week for his radio, and 25 cents for use of a flatiron, and demanded a refund of $16 under the OPA ruling that these were excessive charges.

FIRST FOREIGN TRADE CONTRACTS IN JAPAN OKAYED

TOKYO, Sept. 6.—(INS)—The first five foreign trade contracts with Japanese firms were approved today by General MacArthur's headquarters.

The contracts were for the purchase of $73,500 worth of ceramics, silk and Easter baskets. All five were taken by three firms, namely:

United China & Glassware, New Orleans, La.; American Importers, San Francisco, and the Sider Heger Company, a Swiss firm with headquarters in Yokohama.

The foreign trade division at allied headquarters is working overtime through the weekend and expects to complete action on eighteen remaining contracts by tomorrow night.

PROTHONOTARY

Mr. Edgar feels confident that his record, political and official, will be found to measure up to every political and civil standard and requirement, and expresses the belief that his office has been economically and efficiently conducted to the full satisfaction of the Court, the members of the Bar and the public in general.

It is absolutely essential that every aspirant should demonstrate that he is particularly fitted by training and experience to assume the responsibilities and perform the duties of the office to which he aspires.

The office of Prothonotary and Clerk of Courts is so intimately connected with all the proceedings in the several Courts of Lawrence County, as well as being the medium through which many of the affairs of the people are safeguarded, that the incumbent of the office must be thoroughly grounded in the rules of Court, which regulate the practice therein, to which end he must be familiar with every detail in every one of the numerous functions and duties of the office, which are constantly being enlarged by legislative enactment.

Supposin' Some Dictator Tried to Stop Your Vote

Waxing a bit philosophical yesterday, Horatius Q. McGiverly (of the Spring Hill McGiverly's) remarked, "tis election day come Tuesday, and there'll be a lot of folks going fishing, or remembering they had to see a man about a horse, I wonder what they would say if some dictator said they couldn't vote?"

We wonder too, which is why we urge you as an American, exercising a right that was won in blood and tears, to vote on Tuesday.

"Who will you vote for?" That's your business friend, the important thing is, to get out and vote.

New Castle Defeats Erie Strong In Opener 14-0

Paolone And Gribble Register Touchdowns In Opening Victory

New Castle Impressive In First Game On 1947 Card; Strong Vincent Good Passing Team; Paul Cuba, Jr., Suffers Back Injury; Crowd Of Around 10,000.

Playing hard straight football for the most part, a big determined New Castle High "Red Hurricane" grid machine, delighted an opening night crowd of about 10,000, as the stadium last night by scoring twice to record a 14 to 0 victory as the tough 11-game 1947 card got under way, with Erie Strong Vincent the victims.

Ralph Paolone and Gene Gribble scampered over for the game's two touchdowns, Paolone in the second period, and Gribble in the third. Erie Strong got as far as New Castle's 14-yard line in the final period, and that just about tells the story of what happened. It was the usual opening night story, both teams were nervous and the players a little excited, there was some fumbling, holding and etc., all the result of nervousness, which will wear off as the season progresses. There were many mistakes made, these will be corrected by the coaches.

Paul Cuba Injured

The only serious injury to mar the otherwise perfect New Castle opening occurred right after Paolone's touchdown the first of the new season, when Paul Cuba Jr. making a tackle of an Erie player suffered a back injury, and was carried off the field. The injury is reported as not serious but painful. Erie Strong had a good team on the field, lighter than New Castle, but a group of scrappers and had a forward pass play working that had New Castle "buffeted" for a time. In fact Erie's best weapon was the forward pass, being held to practically nothing on the attempt to crack the big New Castle line.

Erie Passes Well

An analysis shows that Erie flipped 21 passes and made good on six of them, for a total of 76 yards. New Castle threw five passes and made good on two occasions for a total of 24 yards. The New Castle team's best weapon was rushing the ball, making 188 yards in this respect to 47 for Erie.

In first downs New Castle had 11 and Erie 10, most of the Erie first downs coming on passes and two on penalties.

This was the first visit of Strong Vincent to New Castle for football, they are a clean team and played good hard football, but could not match the running attack of the Phil Bridenbaugh charges.

Paolone Crashes Through
New Castle's first touchdown was set up midway in the second period when Erie's Roth had to kick to New Castle out on the 30 yard line after New Castle had lost the ball on downs on the Erie 14.

Gene Gribble was the spearhead in the first touchdown drive along with Lou Clause, Gribble taking the ball on the old Statue Liberty play, raced to the six-yard line after having previously picked up quite some yardage on two plays, one a 7-yard dash by Clause.

There was just five minutes left in the half, as Gribble raced to the six-yard stripe. Ralph "Lajack" Paolone was sent in at fullback to replace Clause, and on the first play after time was resumed Paolone "batted" through center and crossed the goal line for the first 1947 touchdown. Young Jack McCoy rushed in for his specialty, extra-point kicking and did a good job of putting the piskin right smack through the center of the uprights, for the seventh point.

As the first half ended Gribble raced to the Erie 43 on a 17 yard gallop, through tackle.

Gribble Races Over

A smart play by Cliff Rowland, the New Castle right-end setup the second New Castle touchdown. Gribble kicked after New Castle was stopped on the Erie 33. Gribble's kick toward coffin corner was downed by Rowland on the Erie one-yard line. Erie was forced to kick out from behind the goal line and Gribble took it on the Erie 25 yard line.

Clause ripped off five yards, and was hurt, Earl Sallie replacing him. Gribble ran for a first down on the Erie 10, and on the next play romped around the right side of the line and scored. McCoy again kicked the extra-point and that folks was all the scoring for the evening, as Bridenbaugh began his 26th year with a victory.

As said previously Erie had a nice passing attack built around Dick Gilson and Don Zonna, with Don Roth helping out. Erie caused some anxious moments in the fourth period when they opened up with flings all over the place, but the New Castle secondary was breaking them up.

Well Coordinated Attack

New Castle's veteran line looked good last night, from end to end, they need a little brushing up in spots before the Butler game next Friday. There were no standout performers on the New Castle line or backfield, it being a well coordinated attack by the entire eleven men.

The new steel bleachers were used for the first time and presented a sea of humanity, some 2,600 students sitting in this section. There were several hundred fans jammed in front of the stands on bleachers and many standing.

The New Castle-Butler game next week will no doubt attract another banner crowd.

Paolone Racks Up First Touchdown Of Season

Ralph Paolone, alternate fullback and quarterback slices through the middle of the Erie line in the second quarter to tally New Castle's first touchdown of the season. Paolone's dash came from seven yards out in the second period. Shown blocking for the Hurricane back is Johnny DiCola, chunky guard. (No. 40).

Senior High Band Makes 1947 Debut

First Appearance of Band For School Year At Football Game Friday

BAND OF YEAR HAS 110 MEMBERS

They did more than unveil the 1947 model Senior High school football team Friday night at Taggart stadium. The 1947 model of the Senior High school band was unveiled also, and without taking a whit away from the team we would like to say that the band stood out as a corner.

Director Joe P. Replegie had his troubles, too, this year, just like football coaches do. A number of his fine musicians graduated last June and the 1947 band is filled with a host of replacements from the junior high schools.

Plenty Of Zing
About 10 days ago Mr. Replegie called the band together, looked over his new crop and got to work. Friday night was the first appearance and it was good. Not as good as it will be, of course, a month from now, but for a first time it was excellent.

This year Mr. Replegie has added a little more "zing" to the band, that is, he has speeded up the tempo and the folks liked it. The band has 110 members which is high and as the caparisoned musicians stepped out onto the gridiron, the folks knew football season was back again.

With Paul Gibson, the drum major of the band at the head, the band entered the field playing "Across the Field." The band formed a football in midfield and played "The Gridiron King" and "The Sweetheart of Sigma Chi." The natty attired majorettes whirled their batons to the fast rhythm of the band and the packed stands roared their approval.

The band formed the letters E.S.V., honoring Erie Strong Vincent and played the Erie school song. Reforming, the band played the New Castle school song as the crowd stood. Leaving the field the band played "Spring Cheer."

Mrs. Margaret Dunlap and Mrs. Marion Patton, senior high school health teachers, have been named coaches for the majorettes, and the lassies did a swell job.

'Commish' Coen Calls Meeting
Commissioner Frank Coen of the North County league has called a special meeting for Sunday evening at 8 o'clock at Carm's for the following men: President DeLeon, Secretary Sankey, Adam Brille of the Pulaski team and Sagenich of the Nashua team. No others will be admitted to the meeting room.

All-Star Game Plans Advanced

Benefit Game At Flaherty Field Next Wednesday Will Draw Crowd

Plans for the big all-star game at Flaherty field next Wednesday are taking shape. The game is being sponsored by the ladies auxiliary of the Eagles club. The proceeds will go to the Margaret Henry Home.

Dick Friedhoff of Ellwood City Moose, Jim Martin of Bessemer and Connie Wardman of Wampum are picking the County All-Stars and will be co-managers for the game. "Boss" Zidow, "Huck" Davies and Sheriff Coen are to manage the city league All-Stars in the game. Any city league player wanting to take part can contact "Bugs" Walther at The News or see any of the above named managers. Considerable interest in the game is being manifested.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

SOME time ago Ole Tandberg of Sweden won a decision over Joe Baksi, Joe claimed it was a "home town award." Madison Square Garden is reported to have an eye on Ole. In fact, the garden matchmaker is said to be planning to bring Tandberg to the U. S., and if he can stand up against some of our heavyweights, and make a creditable showing, he may meet Joe Louis next June. . . . With 10 more days in which to train, both Jack Biddle and Russell Baxter are in heavy training. On their recent records, Jack will enter the ring the favorite. Baxter is faster and sharper, but not a heavier puncher, than Jack. Due to bitter rivalry between them, it is apt to be a knockdown, drag 'em out affair. The last time Baxter fought here, he changed from a defensive to aggressive fighter, and outfought Al Sayers. He essayed a trip to the east and suffered a knockout. Prior to returning home, Biddle amassed a number of kayoes in the east and south. His left hook, a knockout punch, is his best weapon. . . . Baxter's sparring partner here is Harold Hazlett of Monaca.

Governor James H. Duff has designated the week of October 20 as Hunt Safety Week. . . . President Truman and the governors of several states has set the week of October 5-11 as Fire Prevention Week. . . . Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Roberts and "Fuzzy" Bergland of East Branch, Sinnemahoning creek, Potter County, have returned from a two weeks' fishing trip to Mud Lake, near Buckhorn. "During the first several days the weather was so hot it was not conducive to good fishing, but following the warm spell, we did very well," Roberts reported. Dick, as he is known, was backed by 60,000 sportsmen for reappointment on the state board of fish commissioners but the governor named another man to the post. While a commissioner he performed a swell job. . . . Herbie Kronowitz who boxed Pete Mead in Madison Square Garden, New York, last night, boxed and defeated Russell Baxter in Brooklyn. Russell had Kronowitz down after which Kronowitz put Baxter on the floor. Baxter claims the fight ended in a riot.

Grove City Hi Thumps Union By 26-0 Score

Eagles Unleash Versatile Attack To Spoil Scottie Grid Inaugural

GROVE CITY, Sept. 6.—Union high proved no match for a swift-moving Grove City eleven here under the arcs last night, the Eagles winning handily, 26-0.

Coach "Chuck" James, unveiling his first "Scottie" eleven, had high praise today for his outmanned lads who fought grimly against a heavier and more experienced Grover aggregation.

Versatile Attack
The Eagles showed their superiority in every department, rolling over the ground and taking to the air-lanes with equal virtuosity.

They broke the ice in the initial quarter when right-half McClure flipped a lateral pass to fullback DeRubies who flitted 40 yards to pay dirt. The home forces added two more six-pointers in the third frame when McClure picked off a Kupiec pass to scamper 45 yards, and Middy, sub half, passed to Mottetti for 30 yards and another bell-ringer.

The final score came in the last stanza when a steady onslaught took the pigskin to the 3 where DeRubies cracked over.

Union will have their first home appearance next Thursday night under the lights against Mars.

Playoffs Sunday To Draw Crowds

Three Quarter-Final Games In City League Championship Playoffs At 3 P. M.

Weather permitting, City Baseball league fans will flock to three fields Sunday as the six teams play the third round in the city championship playoffs. The three games will start at three o'clock.

The Lawrence Indians will utilize their new Franks field for the first time Sunday as they battle the South Hill team, both undefeated to date, at the corner of Mahoning and Atlantic avenues. "Bo" Smiley will be on the hill for the South Hillers, and either Russo or Andrews for the Hoss Zidow managed team.

Stewart For Potters
Eddie Stewart, the ace, will draw the hurling assignment for the Universal Pottery at Washington field as they tangle with the rampaging West Pittsburg "Gas House Gang", managed by amiable John DeMonaco. The Potters will face either Danny Attison or Mike Markey, it was indicated.

The third game on the Sunday card will take the Duca D'Abuzzis to the P. & L. E. field to battle the Columbus club. Manager Mike Orlando will probably pitch either Monk Rainey or Fox on the knoll, with Manager Coen probably using one of the Cook brothers or Krakowski.

Although football is here now, fans are still baseball-minded and will no doubt turn out by the hundreds for the games Sunday, providing the weather is good.

Pulaski-Civics To Play Sunday

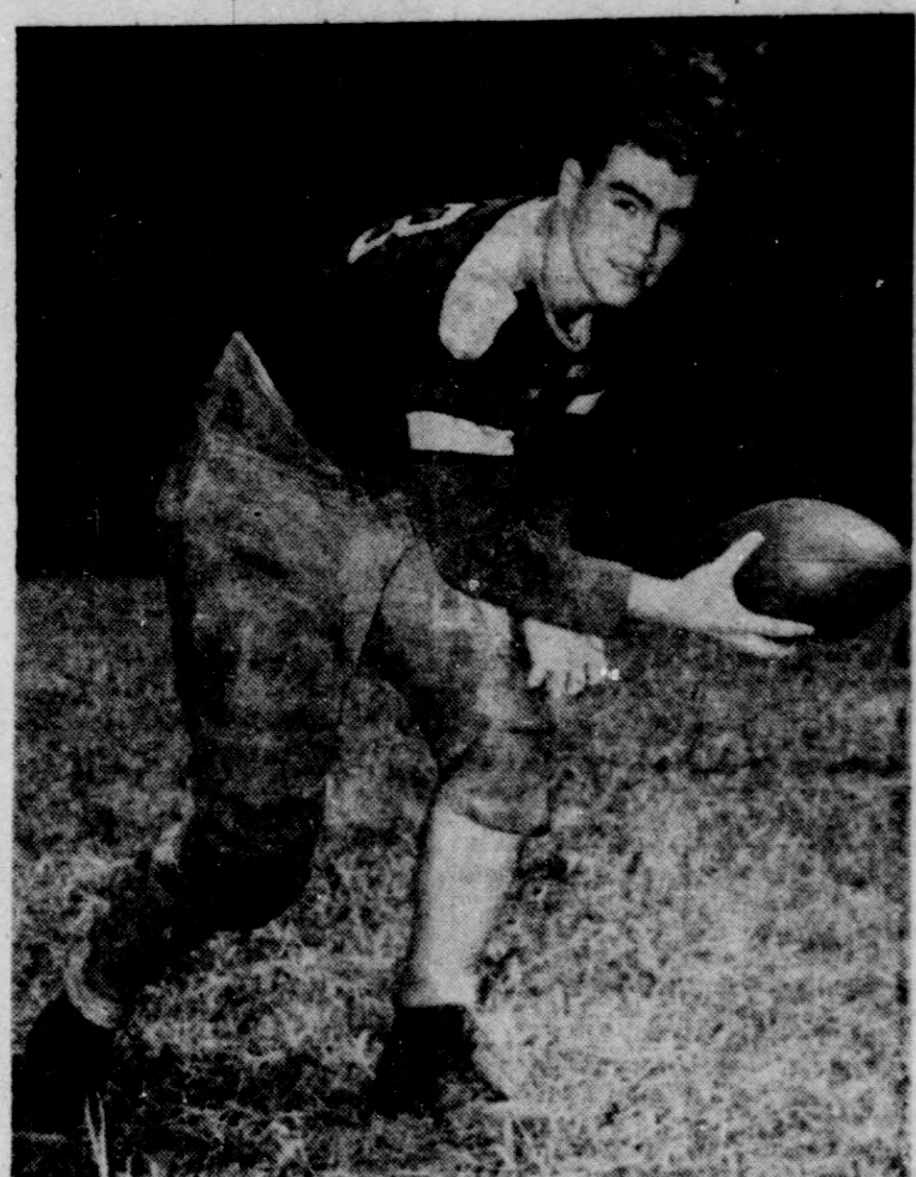

Sunday at 3 o'clock at the Scotland Lane field, the Union Civics will play the Pulaski team of the North County league, it was announced by Manager Carm DeLeon.

Ellwood Sportsmen Plan Powerful Sandlot Eleven

(Special to The News)
ELLWOOD CITY, Sept. 6.—Football-crazy Ellwood City has a special treat in store for them this year as the sportsman club of this town comes up with a sandlot eleven that promises to be one of the best in the district.

Memories of the great high school eleven of 1944 which went into the playoff for the WPIAL championship comes back to mind as we look over the roster which includes the names of Manuazzi, Tillia, Cinnanni, Geneviva and many others.

The services of Bill Young and Ed Vogt as coaches should lend plenty of experience and color to the team. The former has assisted at the high school for a number of years after having starred as a backfield man for the Wolverines. Ed Vogt was a tackle in 1933 for the local high school.

New Uniforms
The team has been equipped with 30 new uniforms with all expenses defrayed by the Sportsman club and friends. The outfits are black with orange stripes and lettering and should present a snappy looking team when they take the field.

At present there are 40 candidates for the team, but Tony Joseph, president of the club, said today that the roster would be reduced to 24 within a few days.

Business manager Danny Petecolla has been busy making arrangements for games and at present Jamestown, N. Y., has been booked and tentative arrangements have been made for games with Aliquippa, Clairton and Ambridge. Final choice of a site for their home games has not yet been made and until such time as they have a definite playing field other games on the schedule cannot be announced.

Many '44 Stars
Most promising among the candidates seems to be Vince Manuazzi, who played plenty of good ball at Pitt last year, and a star of the '44 eleven. Other members of that team who look promising are Dale Tillia, back; Jim Cinnanni, center; Al Geneviva, guard. Others who look good in practice and may land jobs on the eleven are "Ziggy" Glowosky, Carl Agon, a star of the '44 eleven, Jack McChintick, "Chub" Thomas, Joe Vargo, "Dutch" Wiltrout, Herb Donley, Ted Majors, Nick Sudano, Carl Ottobro, Dan Pelloni, Frank Sulia and Frank Szabo.

With a few exceptions all of these boys have played for the local high school in the past years.

Bill Young, head coach, has not formulated a starting lineup as yet, but rather will use all the players on the team for a few games until a starting eleven can be picked. The team practices each evening at 5:30 at the Ewing Park baseball field and has attracted a number of people each evening.

Rainfall in Washington state ranges from 140 inches to 10 inches a year in different areas.

Dodgers Defeat Giants, Pad Lead

Johnny Mize Hits Homer 45, Dodgers Lead By Seven, Yanks Upset

By LES CONKLIN
NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—Johnny Mize of the New York Giants has renewed his bid to equal Babe Ruth's 1927 record of 60 home runs just when it seemed that the big first baseman never would snap out of his slump.

Mize's No. 45 yesterday was his first circuit clout in six games. He has 24 games remaining in which to add 15 homers needed to tie the Bambino's record.

Dodgers Win
Mize's homer and Willy Marshall's 34th weren't enough yesterday as they dropped a 7 to 6 decision to the Brooklyn Dodgers. The losing hurler was Larry Jansen, prize rookie who had won 17 games, including his last 10.

The Dodgers increased their lead over the idle St. Louis Cardinals in the National league scramble to seven full games. Any combination of Brooklyn victories or St. Louis defeats totaling 16 now will de-throne the champions.

Braves Closing In
The Cardinals are only 2½ games in front of the third-place Boston Braves, whose Warren Spahn won a 2 to 1 mound duel from Dutch Leonard in a night game, thanks to a wild throw by Catcher Andy Seminick of the Phillies.

In another night game, the Senators beat the New York Giants again, 3 to 2. Mickey Haefner held the Yanks to six hits.

Indians Scalp Sox
The Yanks, however, continued merrily to back into the American league pennant as the Boston Red Sox dropped a 9 to 7 slugfest to the Philadelphia Athletics under the late lights despite a nine-inning homer by Ted Williams.

Al Gettel of Cleveland held the Chicago White Sox to five hits and beat them 6 to 1 in another night game. A three-run homer by Ken Keltner featured the Indians' attack.

A number of Greek coins of great rarity, dating back to the third century B. C., have recently been deciphered in the museum at Lucknow, India. Most notable among these are the coins of Alexander the Great who invaded India about 327 B. C.

Portuguese sailors brought the ukulele to Hawaii in 1880. Ukulele means "little flea" in Hawaiian.

Pete Mead Beats Herbie Kronowitz

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—(INS)—The rapid rise of Pete Mead in the middleweight division continued unabated today as a result of the victory scored by the classy Grand Rapids Mich., boxer over Herbie Kronowitz of Brooklyn in a 10-round bout at Madison Square Garden last night.

Mead won the third and rubber meeting of the pair by a split decision. A crowd of 5,547 paid $14,653 to witness the opening of the fall fight season at the Garden.

Dukes-Local 1284

To Battle Monday

Rocco P. Viggiano, president of the New Castle softball league, has announced that the replay of the Duca D'Abuzzis and Local 1284 tie of Thursday night will be played Monday evening at 5 o'clock at the Cedar street field.

If the Dukes win it will mean the championship, if the Local 1284 team wins it will mean a best out of three series for the title. Interest in the game will probably draw over 1,000 fans to the Cedar street field.

Every Sunday
1:15 P. M.
"MEDITATIONS IN MELODY"

WILL PLAY SUNDAY
Ryantown and West Side Tigers are playing an exhibition game Sunday at 3 o'clock at the Lee avenue field it was announced today.

Former Resident Assumes Duties As High School Principal In Rochester, N. Y.

Mrs. Anna Jamison of 411 Blaine street has received word that her brother, Arthur E. Harris, of Rochester, N. Y., has been appointed principal of Brighton high school, Rochester, N. Y., and assumed his duties on Wednesday, September 3.

Mr. Harris was born in this city. After about two years in World War I he entered Bucknell university, receiving his A.B. degree in 1921, later graduating from Colgate-Rochester Divinity school in 1924. He did graduate work at University of Rochester, and began his teaching career in Rochester in the fall of 1926.

In 1933, Mr. Harris was made principal of East High school annex and No. 14 elementary school, Rochester, where he has served up to the present time. He has been a resident of Brighton for 10 years.

Arthur is a brother of William E. Harris of 411 Elizabeth street, and David G. Harris of 1511 East Washington street.

Plan To Organize Civic Group Here

A group of representatives among Negroes met at the Second Baptist church Thursday for the purpose of organizing a civic organization for New Castle and vicinity.

Rev. J. L. McFarland, pastor of Second Baptist church, was elected temporary chairman. Arthur Brown, W. Falls street, was elected secretary pro-tem, and Rev. K. L. Buford, pastor of St. Luke's A. M. E. Zion church, was appointed as reporter to the papers temporarily.

Monday, Sept. 8, has been designated as the date to meet for the purpose of perfecting a permanent organization. This meeting will be held at 8 p. m. at the Shenango street, Y. M. C. A.

PHILIP H. BRIDENBAUGH

With New Castle's "Red Hurricane" football team off on its rocky 1947 schedule, the antics of the local athletes are once again being watched by the shrewd eyes of Philip H. Bridenbaugh, beginning his 26th consecutive year as head coach of the Red and Black.

The "Grey Fox" as he has been known by opposing coaches throughout this district for many years, has compiled one of the most enviable records in WPIAL scholastic football, 208 victories, 46 defeats and 17 ties.

Throughout this quarter-century of gridiron competition, the years ring with the sound of immortal names and deeds and if compiled into a history would make exciting reading indeed.

"Bridey" has made this city a forging bed of grid greats and the populace, always eagerly responsive to the thrill of the autumn contact sport, await this year's football edition with no less enthusiasm than in past campaigns.

Born In Martinsburg

The New Castle coach was born in Martinsburg, Pa., and attended Altoona high school and Franklin-Marshall Academy. He went on to be graduated from Franklin-Marshall college in 1912, and took his first instructing position at Oberlin, O., academy where he was a teacher-coach.

Further positions took him to Kiski, Beaver Falls high school and Geneva college. He was football coach at the Covenant school from 1917 to 1922, hence to New Castle.

"Bridey" started his tenure here with swift and powerful teams and for his first three seasons never experienced a defeat, although his eleven deadlocked twice. From 1922 to 1928 his terrific machines won 63 games, lost but three and tied five, a record that was to make New Castle the scourge of the district.

Golden Years

Drugsore quarterbacks and curbstone coaches still argue whether the teams of 1922-28 or from 1929-35 were the greatest ever molded here. Much can be said for both spans, but the 1932 and '33 combinations still cause Hurricane alumni to whisper in hushed tones of admiration. The 1933 eleven certainly one of the finest ever to take the field in Pennsylvania grid circles, combined speed, awesome attacking punch and stonewall defensive strength. Paced by the mercurial runs of little Johnny Uram and the great strength of the prodigious tackles, the Shellogg brothers, the team swept everything before it to win the WPIAL title.

"Bridey" other district crowns came in 1924 and 1942. In 1932 the Red and Black shared the honors with Jeannette and McKeesport. The Hurricane coach's fortunes hit their lowest ebb in 1931 when six games were dropped and in 1944 when eight losses were sustained.

In recapitulation it is found that Bridenbaugh has had three perfect seasons, 1924, 1932, 1933 and four in which he experienced but tie games, 1922-23-28 and 1940.

Long List Of Stars

The veteran coach has groomed an imposing list of football and basketball stars. He was coach of the floor squad, too, from 1922 to 1945.

Among them are Alec Fox, Paul "Bulldog" Reider, Art Craft, Phil Sargent, Walt Raskowski, Chuck Fleming, Bobby Lee, Bill McPeak, Tony Razzano, Sam Haddad, Lindy Luro and Mike Roussos, all of whom matriculated to Pitt. Duquesne received Ben Ciccone and Angelo DeCarbo, while the immortal Shellogg brothers went to Notre Dame.

"Socks" Roussos found his way to West Virginia Wesleyan as did Al Nocera of cage fame. John Uram went to Slippery Rock and Walt Kominic starred at Penn State and Akron U. Bill Duff attended Haverford, Johnny Cabas went to Mt. Union and is now Case's cage coach. Al Piccutta is a coach in Cleveland high school circles, and Tony Ostrosky, a great end, went to Carnegie Tech. Nick Uram is now coaching at Aliquippa high school.

Recent graduates moving on to higher institutions who played under "Bridey" are Billy Andrews, off to Iowa State, Dick Whittaker, cage floorman, to Northwestern, and Al Tate, big 1946 tackle, to Illinois. Freddy Wimer, Salem college basketball flash, received his tutoring here.

Success of New Castle teams on the grid is not meant to rest alone on Mr. Bridenbaugh's shoulders. His assistants through the years, George "Gig" Thomas, Bill Klee and until recently, Paul Cuba, were vitally instrumental in molding these powerful aggregations.

There is perhaps no more uneasy position in a high school or college than that of a football coach. A stern taskmaster who believes in clean living and top physical conditioning, "Bridey", like all of the coaching ranks, has heard the cry of the wolves and the accolades of the crowd. He has always fielded a representative team and deserves much credit for making this city the rabid football center it is today.

The New Castle coach resides with Mrs. Bridenbaugh at 106 East Edison avenue. They have three children, Ross Bridenbaugh, living in Washington, D. C., Mrs. Robert Mills of Natrona Heights, Pa., and Betty, a teacher at George Washington junior high.

Around Hollywood

By JOHN TODD

International News Service Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 6.—Marie McDonald is ignoring the heat to get her honeymoon house in order.

She's very emphatic in giving an answer to the question Hollywood has been asking for months. When is she going to marry millionaire shoe manufacturer Harry Karl?

"In ten days," Marie said. "You can't imagine how busy I've been taking an inventory of my things in the old place."

Marie and Karl will have plenty of time for a wedding trip. M-G-M has nothing lined up for "The Body" in the immediate future.

No Bathing Suit

Marie returned only the other day from Chicago, where she made personal appearances.

She said: "I got a wonderful reception except from one young man. He tried to break up the show by calling out 'why don't you put on a bathing suit?'"

"Believe me, I was very demure. I wore very long skirts. I didn't even show an ankle."

Lancaster Moving In

Marie is not the only one going into a new house. Mr. and Mrs. Burt Lancaster are coming into town from Malibu.

For more than a year they've been renting Conrad Nagel's beach house. Now they've rented Walter Abels Westwood place, close to the studios. They expect to be all settled before Burt begins "All My Sons" at Universal-International.

Burt explained: "The beach place is wonderful in this hot weather. But, it's a long way out there and when the rainy season comes it can be pretty disagreeable. It is a bad trip in wet weather."

"We are anxious, of course, to build our own home. I figure a year from now I'll be well established in Hollywood. Then we can buy a lot and build exactly the kind of a house we want."

MT. HERMON CHURCH CLOSED FOR REPAIR

On account of repairs and improvements at Mt. Hermon church now underway, the church will be closed Sunday and there will be no service there.

Mt. Hermon congregation will join in service at Princeton Memorial Presbyterian church at 10 a. m. instead.

EDUCATOR DIES

SOUTH HADLEY, Mass., Sept. 6. (INS)—Word was received Friday at Mt. Holyoke college of the death in Westport, N. Y., of Mary E. Woolley, world famous educator and president-emerita of the college. She died at her Westport home.

Bessemer Church To Dedicate New Chimes

Bessemer Presbyterian church, which has been newly redecorated, will reopen for worship on Sunday morning, it is announced by the pastor, Rev. E. Chester Crabb.

During the morning worship period, a 25-note set of mass cathedral chimes, which have been recently installed, will be dedicated to religious worship. The chimes have been made possible through the gift of the late William Wiley.

During the morning worship period at 11 o'clock, Rev. Deane C. Walter of China will be the speaker. Sunday school will be held at 10 a. m. with William Hegedus, superintendent, in charge.

TO THE VOTERS

If you were in the market to employ some one to manage your business, would you employ an inexperienced person, or would you employ one who was skilled in the ways of your business. If experience is important in private business, isn't it just as important in the office of County Commissioner. I have had experience in the work of this office.

I ask the vote of Republicans on Tuesday, September 9.
